The Editor's column

by S. R. PADDOCK

We do not know how many persons will take a pencil and paper and digest the auditor's report of the village of Arlington Heights which appears in this week's Arlington Heights Herald

There were too many figures for our adding machine and in the news story on this page it is probable that we have lost some of the figures.

Anyway, Arlington village dads have a lot of money to spend. It is in the neighborhood of a million bucks a year.

If the high school lay committee decided that the answer to the high school problems should be the division of the district, Mount Prospect could collect a lot of money from Arlington Heights.

We do not know the book value of the high school property, but Mount Prospect's equity in the present building and school plant might build them a new school without a bond issue. Arlington Heights would have to pay through the nose.

Our news columns the past two weeks told the story of the 4-H Club fair that was to be. Our pictures tell the story of what it was. It was a great show. Ninety per cent of the advertising it received was through the Paddock newspapers.

A fair official told us, "We do not know if we want it to get any bigger. It now taxes the available space."

An exhibitor told us Monday that next year he would triple the space he used this year. The crowds at both rows of booths were proof that the public was interested in the displays.

F. Robert Buechner, Arlington Hts. village manager, has not told us if he is going to hold a grand opening for the new office quarters on the second floor of the village hall, but they are worth a visit by any taxpayer.

The grime of years has been removed from the floor and walls. Carpenters and painters have transformed the former library quarters into attractive offices which, with new office equipment, gives the place a business atmosphere.

Fred Hammer, building commissioner, is no longer occupying a "hole in the wall."

We do not know how many Arlington residents have thought about the recent safety drive of the Lions Club and police department, but the news columns of this issue have a story about the recognition it has received from a national magazine.

Joseph Brickman, subdivision developer, says he wants the moral permission of William Mortimer, head of Cook County highways, to return to his orginal plans for the development of thirty acres in Arlington Heights. In a news story he says he is still waiting to hear from Mortimer.

We can understand Mortimer's hesitancy to pass upon a "moral" issue, but we admire Brickman for asking for "help." It reminds us a bit of an evangelistic gathering. Our highway head may be trying to decide if the handling of "moral" issues is part of his job.

We have received typewritten copies of the changes that will appear in the new Girl Scout handbook, which will come off the press in September. They are open to inspection by any interested person.

Arlington Heights Legion Auxiliary has joined Merle Guild Post in a statement of its loyalty to the Girl Scouts. It appears in this week's Fence Post.

We stumbled upon a building trade secret of a local developer this week which may explain one reason why quantity builders are able to cut costs. Houses are so designed as to size that standard lumber and materials can be used without waste.

For example, floor space of rooms are in nine inch units in size which allows the asphalt tile to be laid without any cutting. They just fit.

This week's sermon:

"What do you want of the things of life? Peace of mind? Security? Happiness? Zestful, fruitful living? You can get what you want—if you fulfill two conditions: (1) Learn how to get them, (2) Be willing to pay the costs. Jesus tells us HOW to get the things that we really want, peace of mind, security, fruitful living."

Building Delay to Force Double School Sessions

Will Affect Only Ridge, New South Schools for Few Weeks

Double sessions will be necessary at both the Ridge and New South school, Arlington Heights, in the first through fifth grades, when school opens September 7.

Delay in the construction of the new additions at both schools makes this arrangement necessary if school is to be started on time. The board of education hopes that the seven room addition to the Ridge school and the 11 room addition to the New South school will be completed within a few weeks after the opening of school, after which full sessions will again be in effect.

New south kindergarten classes will be held in the Junior high school gymnasium and two kindergarten classes will be conducted simultaneously in the present kindergarten room at Ridge until the additions are completed.

RALPH E. CLABAUGH, superintendent of schools, stated, "A cooperative attitude on the part of every parent will do much to ease the terrific burden on teachers and administrators at the opening of school. To put 10 or 20 classrooms into operation, even when they are completed in time, requires a great amount of detailed planning. To begin operations on double shifts and to move into new classrooms later requires much additional effort on the part of the school staff."

The first floor of the original South school has been converted to Junior high school use during the summer. This includes lockers in the corridors and storage space where lockers had been located in classrooms. In addition the Junior high will have an enlarged home enonomics department, another science room, two industrial arts rooms, and a pair of art rooms where the South school kindergarten was previously located.

The North school has been almost completely re-lighted during the summer. This includes new fluorescent fixtures in all first and second floor classrooms, with acoustical baffles.

EVERY SCHOOL playground will have some additional hard surface play area when school opens. Added playground equipment, more bike hacks(outside painting, inside decorating, drainage of Dryden school playground, boiler repairs, acoustical treatment in some offices and classrooms, and many other projects testify to the efforts of the school board to maintain the buildings and grounds.

The administrative staff has been intensely busy during the summer months. In addition to the work entailed by the matters heretofore mentioned, teachers to fill some 16 additional positions and 18 to make replacements, have been employed. Two additional custodians and a part time secretary for the Ridge school have also been employed.

THE BOARD of education has authorized the employment of a full time reading consultant for the school system. One of the first grade teachers has been appointed to this position. Her assignment will be two-fold: 1) She will help to improve the reading program by advising with teachers, in groups and individually, regarding teaching materials and methods; 2) She will help teachers with students who are reading problems by conferring with the teacher (and parent) regarding diagnostic and remedial measures.

All members of the teaching staff will attend a pre-school planning conference beginning August 30.

Audit Report Of Arlington In This Issue

Arlington Heights taxpayers who take time to study the annual auditor's report which appears in this week's issue will not need to be told that the operation of the Arlington Heights municipality has become big business.

It is the general fund which provides a large part of the "oil" that keeps the municipal machinery in operation. The receipts to this account were $267,000, the expenditures $247,000. This fund was nearly $20,000 better off at the close of the year than it was at the beginning.

The average taxpayer will ask, "Where did that $234,000 come from? How much did I kick in?"

Tax receipts were about $125,000. The remaining $100,000 came from building permits, building fees, business licenses, vehicle tags and from miscellaneous sources. Yes, fines brought in a thousand dollars a month.

THAT $234,000 had to provide a lot of service to the residents of Arlington Heights. The operation of administrative and department of accounts and finance took nearly $35,000; police department $91,000; department of public works, $28,000; street department, $55,000; fire department, $7,561; legal expenses, $4,500; auto parking areas, $4,500. Ten other departments account for the balance of the $234,000.

The village got a few real bargains during the year. First, the fund expenditures were $55,500 less than the amount appropriated. (See the report for details of fund savings.)

The plan commission only spent $479 out of $1,000 appropriated for that purpose. The zoning commission only spent $9 out of an appropriation of $1,500. The board of police and fire commissioners only half of its budget. However, the control of noxious weeds cost $65 more than what was budgeted for that purpose.

THE OPERATION of the sewer and water department is handled as a distinct business and is not included in any of the figures given above. Users of the services paid a total of $124,000 for water and $54,000 for sewer service. Incidentally, the village collected $900 as late payment penalties. The cost of operation totaled $151,000 leaving a gross profit of $67,000. The net profit was only $23,800, which the auditor credited to surplus. Over $43,000 was set aside for payment of bond and interest, sinking fund and depreciation accounts.

There are eight distinctive trust funds. A quarter of a million dollars was handled through those funds during the year.

There is $54,000 safely tucked away in the police pension fund, a major part of which is invested in government bonds.

The figures given in this story are only approximate, but they give a picture of the financial municipal operation.

Question Two Licenses For Local Taverns

Two taverns operating in the village of Arlington Heights may be in violation of the state liquor ordinance which requires all businesses selling liquor, other than restaurants or hotels, to be at least 100 feet from school property.

The ordinance, passed May 16, 1945, states that any existing tavern which is within this distance of school property, could not have its license renewed after its expiration. The matter was brought to the attention of the board in a letter from LeRoy Knoeppel, who, until the past week, has been superintendent of the Arlington Heights high school.

The board will investigate the matter further before taking any action.

ATTORNEY Hugo J. Thal informed the board that the right-of-way of Three States blvd., which goes through the Stonegate subdivision, belongs to the village. The boulevard is divided with a center parkway and the board plans to contact the park board to see whether or not they will maintain the parkway if the village deeds the property over to them.

Work was stopped on the remodeling of a building in the rear of 1108 N. Dunton. The work was being done without a building permit. Another violation was that the building was being remodeled for living quarters. The village ordinance states that only one residential dwelling is permitted on each lot.

THE ONLY recourse the owner, Wilber Olson, may have is to subdivide the property, which has a 132 foot fontage and is 603 feet deep, putting the building on a second lot. However, the building, if it's to be used for living quarters, must meet the building code regarding floor area and construction.

Four Bedrooms Feature New Homes In Windsor Heights

A new, medium priced luxury home was opened this week by Kimball Hill and Associates at 307 N. Derbyshire Lane, Arlington Heights.

The "Riviera," priced at $27,700, features an ultra-modern kitchen, four bedrooms, two-car garage, and an exterior design that is refreshingly new.

The residential area, known as Windsor Heights, as planned, will consist of 65 ranch and bi-level quality homes on curvilinear streets with all improvements. At present, 30 families are living in the area.

Although only one model home is now open, by September there will be seven homes open for inspection.

The "Riviera" is located in Windsor Heights in northeast Arlington Heights, just east of Eastwood Terrace and north of the site purchased for the proposed new Junior High School.

Registers Ring As Shoppers Swarm Stores For Dollar Day Values

Arlington Heights stores were reminiscent of old wartime rationing days Monday as shoppers swarmed about counters in the semi-annual Dollar Day sale.

Judging from the Christmas-like crowds in stores, it was a very successful Dollar Day from the merchants' standpoint.

Despite the poor shopping weather, scores of persons were pouring into stores at 9 a.m. to take advantage of sale items, many of them offered at half the regular price.

"The sale was a success," reported Nelson Hauff, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, which sponsored Dollar Day. "The merchants are pleased, and that makes me pleased, too." He said that he made a tour of stores right at opening time, and he found 30 to 40 persons already buying in many of the shops.

Additional School Bus Routes For Arlington High

Five additional morning routes have been added to the Arlington Heights high school bus schedule for the fall term. A total of 20 morning runs will be offered by the Board of Education to students living outside a 1½ mile radius of the school.

Bus passes will be issued to those students during the first week of school.

For the afternoon runs, there will be 12 routes at 3:18 p.m., six late runs at 4:15 p.m., and two athletic specials at 6 p.m. for boys only.

The detailed bus routes will be printed in this paper next week only. Printed schedules will be available at the school office, post offices, and banks within the district.

High school starts on Sept. 7 for freshmen and Sept. 8 for all other students.

Beginning time has been changed from 8:05 a.m. to 8:10 a.m., as a result of a recommendation from a student cafeteria board which urged lunch hours be shortened five minutes.

Win Plaque In 'Look' Safety Campaign

The Arlington Heights Lions club safety committee was the recipient of a plaque presented to Arlington Heights for "Distinguished Service to Automotive Safety" by Look magazine.

The Lions club conducted a safety campaign in competition with organizations from other towns throughout the nation in a contest sponsored by Look magazine. Cities of Montgomery, Ala. and Muskegon, Mich., were voted co-winners for first place by Look's board of judges, and each city was presented an identical "Look" trophy. Cities, like Arlington Heights, which were close runners-up in outstanding performance, were awarded the engraved plaques.

MAYOR ALBERT W. Goedke was presented the plaque at the Tuesday night village board meeting. The presentation was made by Quinten Ford, immediate past president of the Lions club, and Ed Chresten, president. Members of the Lions safety committee were on hand for the event.

The motor vehicle safety-check program launched by Look magazine in May, with the National Safety Council and the Inter-Industry Safety committee as co-sponsors, developed into the greatest auto-safety promotion in history, according to all available figures.

IN PLANNING the program for safer autos as a means to reduce highway accidents, Look and the co-sponsors set a goal of 100,000 vehicle safety checks in 25 cities which were invited to participate in a week-long program. However, Woodward Kingman, automotive merchandising manager of Look, reports the program was so popular a total of 165 cities throughout the country joined in the campaign, and extended it throughout the month of May and into June to Safey-Check a grand total of 664,861 vehicles—more than six times the 100,000-car goal set originally.

The record-breaking promotion surpassed all expectations even among the original 25 cities invited to participate: they had not 100,000, but a total of 268,395 autos checked.

Village Earns On Inactive Funds

Evidence of good business on the part of the "city fathers" was recently shown when they determined to invest inactive sewerage and water department funds of $100,000, in 90 day short term, U. S. Treasury bills at an earning of $200 to the taxpayers. If the $100,000 had been surplus or reserve fund money of the utilities, the village, of course, could have invested it in long term securities at a still greater earning for the taxpayer.

Inasmuch as this checking account money is working fund cash that will sooner or later have to be expended during the fiscal year for contractual encumbrances, the Board of Trustees exercised business judgment in conservatively investing only such amount as is not temporarily needed.

"Pay-day" will inevitably come, but the money will be there to meet it when the investment matures at the end of 90 days. Meantime, the village has its otherwise idle or inactive current funds working, except money that is checked out daily for ordinary operating expenses.

LIBRARY READING CLUB

The summer reading program had an enrollment of 160 youngsters this year and those completing the necessary reading requirements will be presented with lapel pins.

4-H Fair Attracts Record Crowds, Entries and Exhibits

"It was a total success."

So said Martin C. Meyer, president of the 4-H Fair Board in summing up this year's fair at Arlington Park race track last week end.

"We couldn't have expected more. It was the largest 4-H fair so far for North Cook county, and we have hit our stride for size, participation, and attendance."

Additional pictures of grand champion winners at 4-H Club Fair will appear in next week's issue.

Approximately 35,000 persons poured into Arlington Park to view exhibits by commerce and businessmen as well as the 4-H youngsters.

"We enjoyed an increase in the number of 4-H exhibits, and in the quality of entries," explained Meyer. "For the first time, the number of cattle entries broke the 60 mark and R. J. Howard, who also judged cattle for us five years ago, said that this year there was great improvement in their quality."

"Our 4-H hogs could have competed with the best of them anywhere," Meyer said.

The industrial exhibits were termed a great success, and the Fair Board announced that all available space had been sold. Some businessmen said they planned to expand their booths for next year.

Outside judges selected a roster of grand champions which included:

Phyllis Berlin, Palatine, rabbits; Marvin Meyer, Wheeling, dairy; Melvin Meyer, Wheeling, dairy shownship; Ronnie Johnson, Barrington, beef; Pat Busse, Elk Grove, home garden; Harvey Hartik, Schaumberg twp., commercial vegetables; Donald Drewes, Wheeling, swine; Kenneth Hahn, Hanover twp., crops; Wesley Plote, Palatine, sheep; and William Taylor, Palatine, poultry.

Members of the 4-H Fair Board directing the program were Martin C. Meyer, president; William Linneman, vice president; Steve Csanadi, secretary; A. H. Franzen, treasurer; L. W. Pohlman, Roy Hecht, and Henry Eichholz, director; Nelson Hauff, recreation chamber of commerce.

Parents Warned To Keep Kids Out of Buildings Under Construction

Due to the increasing amount of vandalism reported in new homes and buildings under construction in Arlington Heights, Chief of Police Carl H. Skoog is issuing a warning to parents this week to keep their youngsters away from these areas.

Thousands of dollars worth of damage have been reported by builders and contractors during the past several months. Inasmuch as there are so many homes, schools and commercial buildings under construction at the same time it is virtually impossible for the police to watch all jobs at the same time. Therefore, the cooperation of parents is being sought to keep their children from playing in and around these construction areas.

Children can also be easily injured at these sites and this is another good reason to keep them away.

One Week Left To Pay Taxes

The tax deadline for the second installment of the 1953 taxes is drawing near. There is just one more full week in which taxpayers can beat the deadline.

Penalty date on the second installment is September 1 after which date a 1% a month penalty will be added to all tax bills.

Reports from the local collectors and the county office show that thus far collections have been slow and a last week's rush will be necessary to bring the totals up to where they belong and get taxpayers in before the penalty date.

All taxes paid to the township collectors will be distributed to the local taxing bodies just as soon as the books are audited and the collectors know how much money each taxing body is entitled to.

Extend Library Hours To Accommodate Patrons

Due to the increased circulation at the Arlington Heights Memorial Library, it was decided to increased the hours the library is open from 39 hours to 57 hours a week.

Beginning August 30 the library will be open Monday through Friday, from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m., and Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Mrs. Charles Kule, librarian, now has three assistants, plus two high school girls who serve as pages. At present there are 4,400 people who have library cards. During the month of July 6,700 books were checked out of the library.

Rolling Meadows Begins Plans To Incorporate

Incorporation of Rolling Meadows was one of the main topics of discussion among officers and the board of directors of the Home Owners' association, who met August 10 at the Rolling Meadows recreation building on Campbell st.

Kimball Hill was on hand to address the board and a further discussion on the matter of incorporation was held Tuesday night. However, it is too early to reach any conclusions on this vitally important subject. Residents are urged not to jump to the conclusion that Rolling Meadows will be a city of its own in the immediate future—incorporation is a long and difficult problem, which will take some time to solve.

At present the Home Owners' association is looking for a recording secretary. The person needed must be a competent stenographer, with the ability to take minutes of the meetings and properly transcribe them, as well as handling other paper work whenever necessary. This will be a paid position and should give some resident a chance to do some interesting work and pick up some extra "pocket money" at the same time.

Anyone interested, or who knows of anyone who might be, is invited to get in touch with Wing Groves, president of the association, at CLearbrook 3-1251

Approve Purchase Of Equipment For Sewer, Water Department

Arlington Heights village board approved the purchase of several pieces of equipment that will be used in the sewer and water departments at its meeting Tuesday night.

Two of the items were a power rodder and bucketing equipment, costing a total of $7,554. This machinery will enable the village to clean its own sewers, and it is believed will save the village thousands of dollars in a period of a short time, since hiring this work done is extremely costly.

The third item was a 1953 Ford tractor with backhoe, Wagner loader and hydraulic controlled bucket, digging bucket, digging boom and material basket. This equipment will be used mainly in repairing leaks in water hydrants, water mains and sewers. Though not new, it is in excellent condition and the village saved approximately $2,000 by buying it second hand. It cost $3,450.

SEVERAL ordinances were passed by the board and included the $199.575, which is an increase of tax levy ordinance, totaling $33,524 over last year's levy. The ordinances amending the building code regarding space requirements in homes and an ordinance requiring contractors to deposit $200 when issued a driveway permit in sections where there are underground cables, were also passed. In the latter, $195 of the deposit will be refunded if no damage is done during construction. A regular driveway permit is $5.

A refund of $2,412 will be made to Joe Horowitz, developer of Unit No. 2 of Arlington Greens subdivision, upon the completion of sewer, water and street improvements in that area. The village required that a 10 inch water main be installed, though a 6 inch main would have been sufficienato serve the homes in the area at this time. However, the village wants all new water mains to be big enough so that in the fixture the water system will make a complete circle of the town, thus eliminating any dead ends in water mains. These dead ends necessitate frequent flushings of mains and also make it hard to maintain sufficient water pressure in the area. The refund is the difference between the cost of the pipe for the 6 and 10 inch mains.

Trustee Charles Rehfeldt voted against the refund, he said, "Because such action adds to the tax load of improved property owners and has been a particular added load to the older property owners."

SIX BIDS on the installation of parking meters in Arlington Heights were opened Tuesday night and all have been referred to F. Robert Buechner, village manager, for his summary and recommendation to the board as to which bid to accept.

Despite the fact that nearly a dozen gasoline service stations have been erected in Arlington Heights the past year, the village board could do nothing to deny the permit for another station, which is to be built on the northwest corner of Race ave. and Northfest hwy. Fred Hammer, building commissioner, was authorized to issue the permit as the application met with all village requirements.

The audit report by the State Insurance company regarding the Police Pension Fund, showed affairs in a good sound condition. The report covered the period from May 1, 1905, to April 30, 1953.

In a letter from Chief of Police Carl H. Skoog, the board was asked to consider filling the vacancy on the police force made necessary by the promotion of Patrolman Thomas Vidriock to the office of sergeant. The Chief also recommended that the board appoint two police matrons so that one will be available if and when the need arises. The matters were taken under advisement.

Meet Arlington Heights Businessmen

Members of the Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce

EDWARD LEVIN

There are few men who are in the Arlington Heights realty trade today, who do it so unobtrusively as Edward Levin, of Arlington Realty Co., whose office is at 535 South State road.

"Eddie," as he is called about town, came to Arlington Heights in 1936. He was associated at that time with William Tackett, who after the depression was making an effort to rejuvinate realty values in Scarsdale. Eddie is still at the rejuvination game. He specializes in land deals that bring to life property that is a tax default.

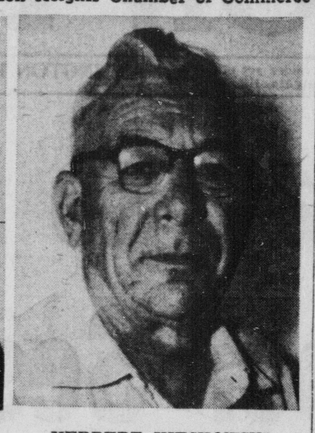
He is not a detective, but he has to use detective instincts at times to find owners who many times have forgotten that they ever had an interest in a lot in the Arlington area.

For a time he was with Herman Weise.

Mr. Levin has devoted a lot of attention to Stonegate and Mitchell's Addition, and at present is investigating titles in the subdivision east of Scarsdale. He is turning a deaf ear to suggestions of any industrial development there.

"Fifteen years ago, I told customers that the purchase of any property in Arlington was a good investment," says Levin. "I think there is no one who will today deny that statement.

Roy Sahlberg is associated with Mr. Levin.



HERBERT KIESKOWSKI

Herbert Kieskowski, proprietor of Arlington Heights Heating and Sheet Metal Co., 712 E. Kensington rd., Arlington Heights, is rather modest. Otherwise we would write a story about the business success that he has achieved in the sheet metal business. However he did tell us some of his early experiences.

Forty years ago he started to learn the sheet metal trade at a salary of $9.00 a week. Ten years later in 1913, the salary had reached $18.00 a week and he says, "It was easier for me to save money than it is today. That $18 went a long ways."

At that time a tinshop during the winter kept busy by making funnels, milk pails, elbows and even tin cups. Today those articles are produced on a production line of large companies.

The old time coal furnace is being replaced by modern heating units operated by oil and gas. "It has been nine years," said Mr. Kieskowski, "since I have installed a coal furnace."

Herbert was an employee of a neighboring sheet metal firm in 1941 when the salesman of the Inland Steel Co. directed him to Arlington Heights, which community was without a sheet metal firm. He purchased a shop that had been closed over a year.

The firm now has five men on the job, every one of them loyal to their boss. Herb has not forgotten his early training and is always ready to handle any sheet metal work. "I am not worrying about science of the future finding a substitute for tin, because it is the same material in the modern autos today that was used on the tin Lizzies when I was a young man."

Before this reporter left the office, Mr. Kieskowski introduced us to Ann Miller, whom he says has a knack at keeping customers happy even if he is a bit late in answering a call. "She relieves me of half of my worries," the boss said.

Announce Plans For Elementary Bus Routes

The board of education of the Arlington Heights public schools has renewed their contract with the Harvel Motor Coach company. Students living 1½ miles or more from their school will be issued a free bus pass on the first day of school. Students living less than 1½ miles from school will be able to ride the bus for a cash fare or a monthly pass to be purchased from the Harvel Motor Coach company.

Increased enrollments have made it necessary to revise some of the routes. An additional bus has been purchased in order that the routes may be covered without overloading of buses.

A complete list of the routes and stops will be published in this paper September 2.

VFW Plans Membership Drive For September

The Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 981, Arlington Heights, will hold its 1955 membership drive starting in September. Commander Roy Reese lists six good reasons why veterans should join the local post:

1. It is the most distinctive of all veterans' organizations in that its membership is restricted to those who served overseas in time of war. It is a "fighting man's" organization.
2. It is the oldest of all veterans' organizations (founded in 1899) and is rich in the experience of doing for the veteran and his dependents.
3. To it goes the credit for most legislation that has been passed by Congress on behalf of the veteran and those dependent upon him, notably the World War 1 bonus, the World War 2 and Korea Campaign, "GI Bills."
4. It is dedicated to the defense of every man's right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Its motto: "We honor the dead by helping the living." Its emblem, the Cross of Malta, which was also the emblem of the world's first great brotherhood of men, the Knights of St. John.
5. It is the only veterans' organization maintaining a national home for veterans' widows and orphans. The V.F.W. National Home is at Eaton Rapids, Mich.
6. It is a democratic organization. Every man can attain any V.F.W. office through his own abilities.

THE LOCAL post is building a new club house on Northwest highway and Yale ave., and the building should be completed late this year. Co-chairmen of the membership committee, Sr. Vice Commander Alex Angeloff and Jr. Vice Commander Robert Carter, have high hopes of recruiting any new members from this area.

Anyone interested in joining the VFW may do so by contacting one of the following:

Commander Roy Beese, phone Clearbrook 3-5773; Sr. Vice Commander Alex Angeloff, Clearbrook 3-4205; Vice Commander Robert Carter, Clearbrook 3-3283; Quartermaster Robert Koeppen, Clearbrook 3-0686, or any VFW member.

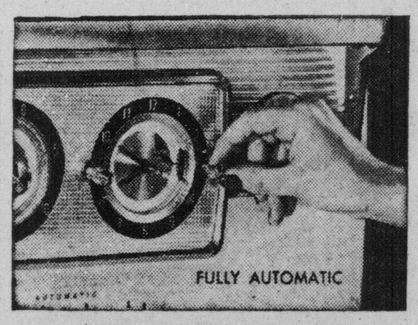
SEE WHY 1,300,000 MORE AMERICANS MADE THE SWITCH TO NEW ELECTRIC RANGES LAST YEAR



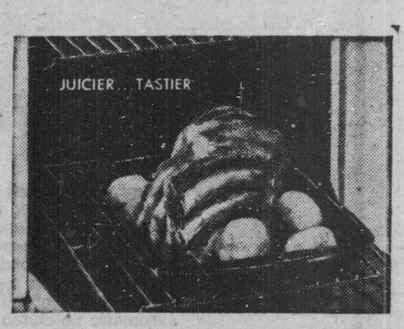
FULLY AUTOMATIC—EVEN COOKS WHILE YOU'RE AWAY. The new electric ranges really save you work. They have push-button or dial heat-controls, thermostats to keep temperatures exactly right, and a clock-timer you can literally set and forget. It turns the oven on, does the cooking, then turns the heat off. You get even, uniform heat—perfect cooking results every time.

The number of American families who've made the big change to a modern new electric range grows bigger every year. All in all, over 11,450,000 now have electric cooking.

Why is electric cooking growing so fast? A big part of the answer is in the wonderful features and conveniences you see below. Honestly, the new electric ranges have so many good points, we're sorry we can only show a few in this space.

When you make that important trip to choose your new range, be sure to ask for—and see—the exciting new electric ranges.

YOUR KITCHEN STAYS COOLER. When you cook on an electric range heat goes directly from the surface unit to the pan and to the food. No heat or fumes escape around the pan. The oven cooks cool, too, because it's sealed and insulated to keep the heat locked in. You don't waste half the heat you pay for in warming up an already stifling kitchen.



LESS SHRINKAGE, MORE FLAVOR. With a sealed electric oven, roasts and fowl come out juicier and tastier, yet need no basting. In reduced shrinkage alone, an electric range saves you money on your meat costs. Vegetables cooked the "waterless" way on top units have livelier flavor, more nutrition, since you don't have to pour all the goodness down the drain.

See the dazzling new 1954 electric ranges at your Public Service store or at your dealer's!

Explorer Scouts To Receive Leader Training

By GEORGE A. MOUDRY

Three Arlington Heights Explorer Scouts were selected by Northwest Suburban council to receive junior leader training at the Schiff Scout reservation, national training center, Mendham, N. J. They are: Michael Moudry, troop 32; Edward Timmerman, troop 37 and Kent Petelle, post 707. As members of a group of 16 highly skilled and qualified Explorer Scouts, they left August 14 via the New York Central.

Boy Scouts of America, in conducting a program for the perpetuation of the high ideals of Americanism in the "Youth of Today," offers this training to junior leaders in skills techniques so that they may assist in training junior leaders in their own units or in district or council training events.

The two week period will be a series of experiences in skill in scoutcraft and leadership in the framework upon which the program is built. Patrol and troop organizations, camping and program planning, become experiences which will be transferred to other young men back home. The experience will be rounded out with campfires, swimming, fishing, boating, canoeing, archery, rifle marksmanship and trap shooting.

Training will take place on 500 acres of rolling thickly wooded hills near New York City.

Win Trophies In Learn To Swim Program

Winners of the two Herald-American trophies for 1954 were Nan Gieseke, 7, and Richard Eaton, 9. These trophies are presented each year to the boy and girl who progress the farthest in the "Learn to Swim" program held each summer at Arlington pool.

The Herald-American makes these awards at the numerous swimming pools in the Chicago area where the Red Cross swimming program is held.

There were 1,207 children registered in the "Learn to Swim" program this year, children age 7 and up. From this group, 600 were non-swimmers. More than half of them became swimmers and many were members of the advanced clubs similar to the ones used in the Y.M.C.A. program.

The Arlington Heights program was a combination of the Red Cross and Y.M.C.A. programs. Instruction ends August 20.

TV NEWS

By Don Hager

Mario Lanza, whose voice once again rings out in the hit movie, "The Student Prince," comes out of his personal semi-retirement to star in one of the "Shower of Stars" shows on CBS-TV for Chrysler Corporation. Lanza's co-stars on this extravaganza, part of a new series starting this fall, will be a famous husband-and-wife team . . . bandleader Harry James and long-reigning movie queen Betty Grable.

One of the innovations planned for Ed Sullivan's "Toast of the Town" during the coming season is the local "cut-in." What this means is that local talent in small towns all over the country will get a chance at the big break, with their acts being done locally but spliced into the national show.

An ex-boxer turned actor, Paul Grant bragged about never having been knocked from his feet in the ring. His first TV assignment as an actor found him being beaten unmercifully by villains in the "I Led Three Lives" series. Then came his second chance, in a Fireside Theater show starring former child actor Bobby Driscoll. Lo and behold, the script called for Driscoll to knock Grant out for the count! Now he's thinking of going back to boxing, so he can stay on his feet.

Maybe you'd like to have that new big screen television set, but you figure the cost would knock your budget out for the count. Well, you can stay on your financial feet and still get quality big screen TV with the new DUMONT models at DON HAGER'S TV & APPLIANCE, 11 W. Davis St., Arlington Heights, Ill. Here's Scouting

With Explorer Scout Bill Hogate

Old Sourdoughs Spin Tales Of Desert Adventure

Wonderful! Exciting! Adventureous! — Those were some of the exclamations uttered by ten adventure-minded Explorer Boy Scouts and their leader, after returning home from 22 days of wilderness desert hiking at Philmont Scout Ranch, Cimmeron, New Mexico, July 22, through August 15.

The fortunate boys and their leader were: (from Palatine) Randolph Falvey, adult leader, and Davey French; — (from Post 153, Mount Prospect) Gary Young, crew leader, Robert Mors, Neddy Wilson, Martin Green, Lawerence Wilson, and Davey Nelson; — (from Barrington) Franklin Peck, and Halland Shatwell; — (and from Des Plaines) Davey Pellet.

For the first three days these boys tramped through endless rolling foothills, bountiful with flora and fauna much the same as ours. From then on, reported Gary Young, the going got might rough. The topography prevented good mileage, in fact—scaling an 11,000 foot mountain headed the slate as a part of this trip. Gary added, rather jokingly, "The only incident in which somebody had cause for accident, was when one of the boys got kicked in the seat of the pants by an over rambunctous burro."

As for chow the first day out from base camp, the scouts had a chuck wagon to keep them company. From then on, hwever, it was a matter of carrying food on a burro or back pack.

At the end of this long hard adventure, all gave thanks of Mr. Falvey, for his unlimited contribution, and again all agreed that Philmont was ever as much or more than they had anticipated. Transportation was furnished by the Santa Fe Railway to and from their destination.

Ballots Cast at 707 Political Rally

District Commissioner Raymond Woodruff proudly announced that heated elections were smouldering Tuesday evening, Post 707's meeting in progress. After listening to endless campaign addresses by the candidates, and considerable thought was leveled by each member toward the selection of the right man, the ballots were cast. A late tally showed Jeff Hanor as crew leader, followed by Dale Nichelsen, deputy crew leader, Tom Clarke, Secretary, Marshall Crane, quartermaster, and trailing the end, James Plambeck as sergeant-at-arms and post bouncer.

Local Star-Gazer Tells Story of Hobby

Jeff Hanor, Arlington Heights Explorer Scout, Saturday, unraveled the story of his facinating hobby on the desk of "Here's Scouting."

"My father, an Eagle Scout, studied the stars as a hobby. In this way I became interested in studying the heavens; the beautiful patterns and legends connected with each group of stars. I like science and have in my possession many books of scientific content. Also in my astronomy collection is a 3½ inch telescope for a careful investigation of our heavens. I am a member of the Astronomy club at high school."

"Often," remarked Jeff, "Jim Plambeck visits my house on clear nights, and together we both stargaze."

Jeff is one of the few boys in the Council that has an astronomy Merit Badge.

Let's go fellows! "Here's Scouting" would like to hear from all you hobby-minded Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, or Explorer Scouts, with interest in some sort of hobby or interesting passtime. Let's help Scouting along on the forward move by sharing our fun with others. Just give me a call — Bill Hogate, CL 3-0219, or write to — "Here's Scouting," 517 South Dunton Avenue, Arlington Heights. (Deadline each Sunday.)

Bored Baby-Sitter Is 'Victim' of Burglary

A 13-year-old boy, bored with baby-sitting for his sister, 5, staged a fake burglary this week to "liven things up."

Gaylord Spaulding, of rural Waukegan, phoned his brother and reported that he had chased two burlgars from the house.

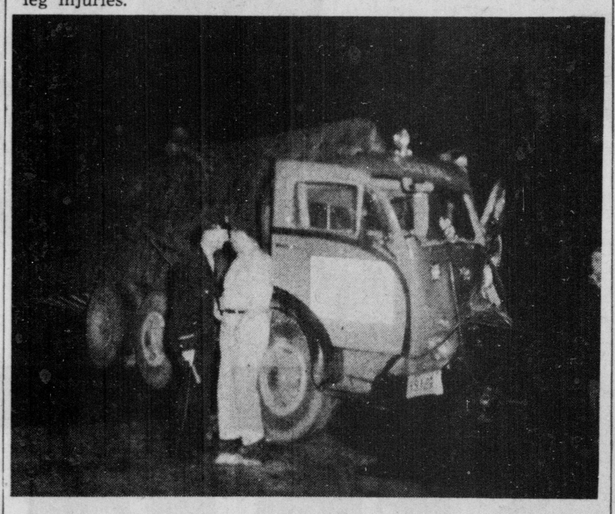
Under questioning from his brother and police, the youth admitted that the call was a hoax.

He told county officers that he riffed the drawers, dumped the family silver and jewelry in a pillow case, and threw it out a window.

Then he called his brother and settled back to watch the excitement.

The "loot" was all recovered.

Gaines Hall, 45, of Rapids, Wis., was pinned in the cab of this truck after he ran a red light and careened into the trailer of another truck at River rd. and Rt. 58 at 4:50 a. m. August 12. Hall is still confined to Resurrection hospital with serious leg injuries.



This trailer, loaded with paper, is part of the truck driven by James A. Oligney, 27, of Waupun, Wis., who said he had been driving north on River rd. and Hall was going east on Golf rd. The truck is shown here turned over in the ditch. Hall was carrying a prefab house when he collided with Oligney.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

There have been continuous efforts in the United States by government, radio and newspapers to indicate that the world is making headway against the threat of communism. The overall picture does not prove this contention. Communism is not being contained on all fronts. It is advancing slowly, but continuously.

Russia is being contained geographically in Europe, but reports seem to indicate that the growth of communist ideology, in Italy and France at least, has not lessened. France's faltering allegiance to a united military army indicates her fear of Russian reprisal, and her surrender to the Reds in Indo China marks another great advance for communism in Asia. There is a constant, if not growing, division of opinion among free nations of the world on the advisibility of admitting Red China to the United Nations. Her admission, and it seems possible that she will be admitted, would be a victory for communism.

IT IS PROBABLE that the United States may soon have to face communism practically alone. In the face of this possibility, how there can be so much opposition on the part of loyal Americans to the work of Senator McCarthy and his committee is hard to understand.

Senator McCarthy is a loyal, fearless, unselfish American. In the face of strong opposition, he has brought to light evidence of a far flung subversive element in America which should arouse each of us to the danger of communist influence in this nation. He is not always a tactful man, and is often sarcastic, even brutal; but his sincerity, intelligence, ability and willingness to risk his political career for the welfare of his country is not questioned.

WE CANNOT exist as a nation part communist and part free. If we are not anti-communist, we are communist. If the worst comes and America must fight communism alone, we must be actively united or we shall fail.

Many loyal Americans who do not like McCarthy as a man are transferring their dislike for him into opposition to his work. That is what the communists hope for, and what they are working for in their opposition to McCarthy.

I am reminded of Christ's plea with his disciples:

"If ye do not believe in me for myself, then believe in me for my works sake."

If you do not believe in Senator McCarthy for himself; if you do not like him as a man: then believe in him for his work's sake: and thank God that there IS a Senator McCarthy.

Scouts Explore Fox River On 3-Day Trip

By GEORGE A. MOUDRY

Explorer Scouts, Michael Moudry, Scott Moritz, Wayne Rydberg and their advisor, George Moudry, of troop 32, Arlington Heights, explored the Fox river from Elgin to Fox River Grove August 9 to 11 via canoes.

Leaving early Monday morning from Trout park, Elgin, their noonday meal and stop-over was at Dundee's fire department landing. Fast water was encountered at the spillway at the powerhouse at Carpentersville and portage was necessary at the dam. They thought there was nothing as invigorating as a bath at the brink of the dam before the continuance up the river passing through turbulant waters at Buffalo Grove picnic grounds and arriving at Algonquin dam just at supper time. Black clouds indicated a storm so temporary shelter was obtained under Algonquin highway bridge after the dam portage. Hail the size of hickorynuts fell for a brief period during an hour rain storm while supper was prepared and cooked over fire made from salvaged wood scraped from the protected areas.

Monday night's camp was pitched at Fox River Grove during unsettled wet weather. Tuesday was devoted to a survivorship program. A natural spring was discovered for the supply of fresh water, fish were caught for food and fruit was obtained from berry bushes and apple trees along the railroad right-of-way.

The trip downstream was considered easier since the current favored both canoe, occupant and fear. Wednesday night found the Scouts at the Elgin base very much more sun tanned, wiser and eager to participate in another similar experience.

Eight Sewing Classes At Arlington Night School

Eight classes in sewing will be offered in night school at Arlington Heights high school this fall.

The adult education division will feature two classes of tailoring, three classes in intermediate sewing, and three sections for beginners.

Enrollments will be limited to 20 for advanced and intermediate classes and 16 for beginners.

Two fully equipped sewing rooms with 16 new electric machines will be available. Fitting rooms, full length mirrors, cutting tables, and pressing facilities are included in the program.

Instructors are selected from the high school teaching staff, professional tailors, and experienced adult instructors. A maximum of individual attention will be given each adult and individual projects will be developed.

Enrollments in the sewing classes will be taken by mail as soon as the printed catalogues are distributed. Other registrations will be Sept. 20-22 at the school office.

All night school classes begin Sept. 27 and will run for 10 weeks.

The importance of relying wholeheartedly on God, divine Mind, for guidance will be stressed at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mind" will include the following passage from the King James Version of the Bible (Proverbs 3:5,6): "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

The practical availability of spiritual guidance will also be stressed in the following passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (254:10-12): "When we wait patiently on God and seek Truth righteously, He directs our path."

The Golden Text is from Daniel (2:20,21): "Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his: . . . he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding."

Parents Urged By County Health Director To Check Children's Health

Dr. John Hall, county health director, Monday urged parents with children entering school for the first time this fall to see that their children have:

1. Medical and dental examinations.
2. Immunization shots.
3. Emotional security.
4. Good eating and safety habits.

Illinois law requires that every child have a medical examination before starting school. Dr. Hall pointed out that good health is very important because it influences the degree to which each child can take part in and profit from his school experiences.

"This is the time to prevent the development of defects or to correct defects," Dr. Hall said. He emphasized the importance of following the advice of the physician and dentist in correcting physical defects, such as those of teeth, tonsils, adenoids, eyes, and ears.

"Every child should be protected against communicable diseases such as diptheria, whooping cough, and small pox by immunization against these diseases," he said, adding that booster shots should be given as needed.

Dr. Hall pointed out the health of a growing child also depends upon forming healthful living habits, such as having adequate sleep and exercise, eating a well-balanced diet, and practicing safety in work and play.

"Habits are most easily formed in these years than at any other time in life," he said, adding that with the active cooperation of parents, physicians, and teachers, positive healthful living habits may be established.

'Wayward Boy' Sends Pastor To Canada For Fishing Trip

A non-existent "wayward boy" has sent a Des Plaines pastor on an all-expense paid vacation to the Canadian fishing country.

The Rev. R. K. Wobbe, pastor of the Christ Evangelical and Reformed church, was called to the Country House on July 22 to counsel a delinquent youth.

When he arrived at the restaurant, he was greeted with a dinner in his honor and the announcement from church trustees that a fishing trip was about to become a reality.

Responsible for the vacation are a group of businessmen and residents who are ardent fishermen and who realized that it was nearly impossible for a minister to arrange his schedule to include a fishing trip to Canada.

With this in mind, they contacted the trustees and completed arrangements for Rev. Wobbe's surprise vacation.

Modern Milk House At Wisconsin Fair

Providing additional service for all livestock exhibitors at the state fair is the modern milk house, located across from the coliseum which will be in full operation all during the Wisconsin state fair, August 21-29.

All milk produced on the grounds will be weighed, sampled, cooled and marketed for the exhibitors. This is an entirely non-profit plan whereby the exhibitor receives full value for all milk sold. A new feature of the milk house this year is the bulk system of milk handling, where the milk is cooled automatically and loaded in tank trucks. The three bulk coolers, one 400 and two 250 gallon capacity, are capable of handling over 90 cans of milk daily.

Quick Thinking Cop Prevents Train Wreck

A quick-thinking Des Plaines policeman was responsible last week for saving the lives of four persons stranded in an auto parked on railroad tracks.

Four automobiles were stopped at the Miner st. traffic signals with one auto forced to park on the tracks. As a flyer approached from the east, Sgt. Irv Stempel shouted at the driver of the first car to move and permit the stranded auto to drive off the tracks when the train was less than 100 yards away.

"James, stop showing off and call State-Rand Service for a mechanic!"

Virginia Terrace News

Robert Parsons, principal of Wilson school, surveyed this district last Wednesday in an effort to determine the coming school enrollment and to let new residents know that registration of all children entering Wilson school for the first time will be held Wednesday, August 25 from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. Students transferring from other schools should bring transfer forms. First graders must have birth certificates (legal form, NOT hospital form). They are also expected to have a medical examination before entering school.

Your reporter was also in this new subdivision Wednesday afternoon, welcoming them to the school district, and called on the following families: Mr. and Mrs. Francis P. McKiernan, Mr. and Mrs. T. Rosselle, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Murray and children Danny 10, Donna 8 and Dougie 7; Mr. and Mrs. John Kearney and daughter Jeanine 5; Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Ekelja and children Arline 4, Dianne 3 and Janice 1; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gerstin and children Kenneth 8, Debbie Ann 1½; Mr. and Mrs. Maldwin Rollefson and children Nancy 7, Susan 6, Jacquelyn 4, Jennifer 3 and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Johnstone Jr., and children Eric 3, Aletha 2 and Douglas 3 months.

These families are very happy with their new homes, and will be so glad when the grading is completed, driveways and walks in, as the mud and dirt tracked into the houses creates quite a problem. Wilke rd. has been widened to provide parking space for the cars.

'Double-Barreled' Baby Buggy Wanted

James Sigwalt, 618 S. Cook st., Barrington, appealed to Paddock Publications this week for help. His wife gave birth last week to twins, a boy and girl. He had been told the classification section of Paddock's papers could find anything and sell anything. He needs a double-barreled baby buggy.

The publishers are trying to live up to that reputation and are making a news story out of what is usually a classified adv.

Can anybody help him?

The trouble with all these new-fangled devices so simple a child can operate them, is that children usually do.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS PHARMACY Monthly News

A message from George Harris, 'Your Pharmacist'

ONE OF THE IMPORTANT REASONS why Congress voted against socialized medicine was that it would interfere with your selection of "The Physician Of Your Choice".

ANOTHER FREEDOM OF CHOICE is your right to select the Pharmacy you prefer. Physicians do not like to suggest that you go to a particular Drug Store, because their Code Of Ethics does not permit them to regulate where you get your prescriptions.

YOUR PHYSICIAN WILL WELCOME your informing him that we are Your Pharmacist. Ask him to phone your prescriptions to us, and we will have them ready, when you call, or delivered promptly without extra charge.

SHOULD YOU CONSULT a Physician in another city, who may not be familiar with our prescription facilities, please mention to him that we can compound any prescription, from any Physician, exactly as is specified.

Miss Charlene Schubert was honored at a surprise bridal shower Wednesday given by Mrs. Florence Johnson and Mrs. Dorothy Raasch. The party was attended by 20 neighbors and friends of the bride-to-be.

We would like to take this opportunity to honor some of the Eastwood residents who gave so much of their time and effort to the management and coaching of Little League, Pony League and Minor League baseball teams this summer. The men who helped to inspire young boys on the field were: Russ Walters, George Tuttle, Bill Heitz, Whitey Nickelsen and Jack Mutti. Parents of the Little Leaguers, Pony Leaguers and Minor Leaguers appreciate the wonderful guidance these men gave their sons. Boys of Eastwood who played on Little League teams were: Jack Mutti, John Link, Nicky Tuttle, Ken Dougan, Michael Nelson, Paul Heitz, Joe Orgler and Don Snell. Those who played with the Pony League were Gary Snell and Dick Nickelsen. Denny Zapp was also with this league until illness forced him to drop out. With the Minor League we had Raymond Orgler, Howard Baker, Rusty Walters, Joe Heitz, Dennis Fitzpatrick, Jerry Orgler, John Wingquist and David Shaughnessy.

FOR THE ANSWER TO THIS QUESTION

Is it possible that it costs 2½ times as much to replace a structure today as it cost to build it 10 years ago? A building contractor insists that it does. Must I more than double my fire insurance over 1942 to be covered for full replacement value?

Carriellen Reeve Is Bride Of Lael De Muth

White gladioli, carnations and greens decorated Barrington Methodist church August 15 for 6:30 o'clock candlelight ceremony in which Miss Carriellen Reeve, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Reeve, Baldwin rd., Inverness, became the bride of Lael S. De Muth, Boulder, Colo.

Rev. Mehling officiated at the service during which Mr. Reeve gave his daughter in marriage.

For her marriage, the bride wore a gown of embroidered organdy over satin fashioned with a hoop skirt, three-quarter sleeves, scoop neckline and a fitted bodice. Her veil was waist length held in place by an embroidered headpiece. White glamellias made up her bridal bouguet.

Mrs. William Iber, Palatine, served as matron of honor to the bride. Her gown was of pale lavendar silk shantung, fashioned ballerina length with three-quarter sleeves and a fitted bodice. Her headpiece was purple velvet and her flowers were of varying shades of purple delphinium and daisies. Bridesmaids were Miss Luigi Horne, Barrington, Miss Francine Hafer, Chicago and Miss Anne Furstenau, Ludington, Mich. Their gowns were identical to the matron of honor's gown. Seven-year-old Lucy Iber served as flower girl wearing a white chiffon gown over lavendar taffeta. She carried a basket of daisy petals.

Best man to the groom was Lawrence W. De Muth Jr. and ushers were William Iber, Alan De Muth and Harold B. Reeve.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for 150 guests. Mrs. Reeve received in a light blue cotton lace dress and Mrs. De Muth is a blue-grey lace dress. Mrs. Reeve's corage was of coral glamellias and Mrs. De Muth's of pale yellow glamellias.

Mr. Reeve and his bride will be at home after August 30 in Boulder, Colo. They are honeymooning at Deer Trail lodge near Rhinelander, Wis. The new Mrs. Reeve is a graduate of Palatine high school and the University of Colorado. She is now employed as an art teacher at Columbine school, Longmont, Colo. Her groom is studying at the University of Colorado school of law.

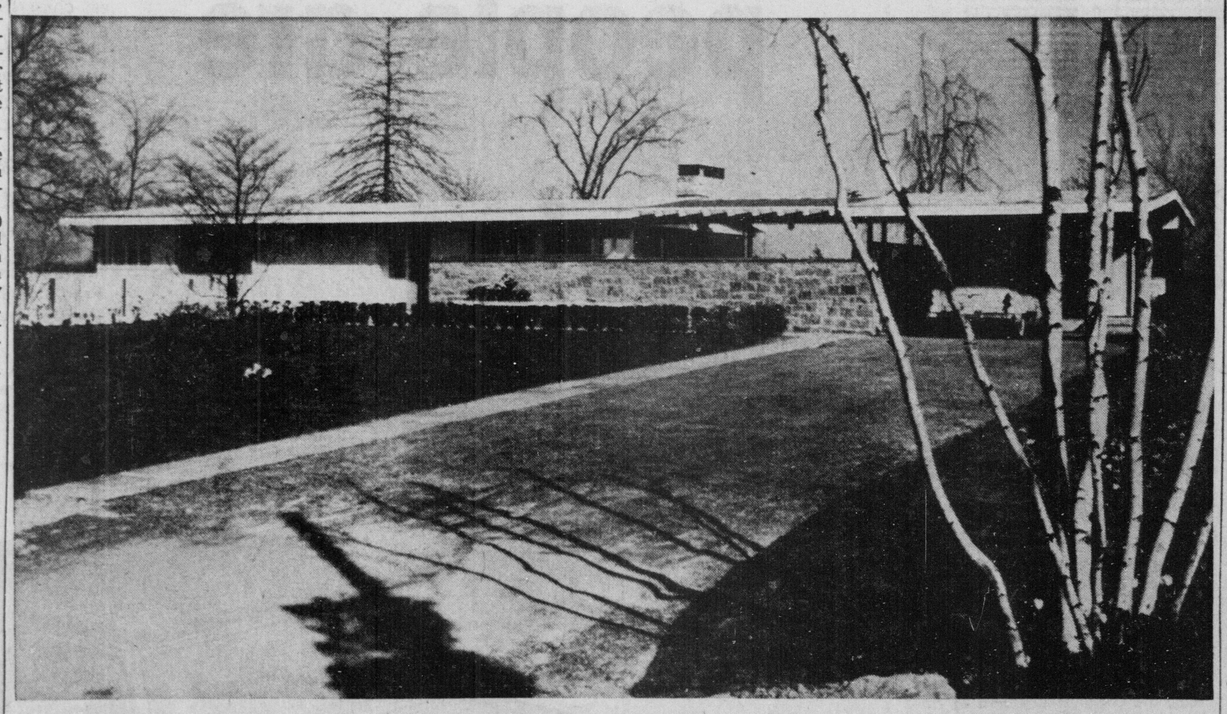
'Home for All America' Opens August 28



With an interior design planned to meet the living needs of Arlington Heights families, the "Better Homes and Gardens Home for All America" will open August 28 at 919 S. Highland ave., corner of Kirchhoff rd.

Designed by Robert A. Little and Associates of Cleveland, the revolutionary home has been decorated by the staff of Carson, Pirie, Scott and Co.

"We have planned our interiors with the community and its surroundings in mind," explained Jerome Phalen, head of the interior decorating department. "Better Homes and Gardens magazine recommended several interiors for their model home. We've adapted some of their suggestions, and originated some of our own in order to make this thoroughly Arlington Heights."

Here is how the Home for All America will look:

The foyer, which leads to the functioning rooms of the home, is sparsely furnished. On one wall is a low cabinet console with flagstone top. Sitting on top of it is a tall lamp with pyramid column base and opaque drum shad efinished in oyster white and antiqued with a deep amber tone. Balancing with the lamp and hung low is an abstract line drawing in vivid coloring. The carpeting which is used in the foyer, long hall and in the living-dining area is a custom dyed rayon in dry mustard shade. The mustard color is also used on the walls in the entrance hall.

The living room features walnut wood paneling throughout. The draw drapes are antique silk gauze with white background and have an oriental pattern done in pale pumpkin, gold, and tree bark colors. These are repeated in the upholstered coverings used in the room. The one long wall is highlighted with an 8 foot sofa upholstered in antique satin and dry mustard color. At one end of the sofa is a large corner table and a lamp with four round brass columns and a neutral glass cloth shade.

At right angle to the sofa is a maximum sized lounge chair in tiny stripe pattern of gold and pumpkin. Focal point of the room is an immense fireplace of lannon stone. Centered before the hearth is a low, round flagstone-top coffee table and four low back lounge chairs on casters. These are upholstered in pale pumpkin fabric.

The "L" shaped dining area has an oval dining table surrounded by four chairs covered in black leather. A matching cabinet buffet sits at the far end under a group of high windows. Walnut and shell wood finishes are used, and paintings are original water colors by Antimo Beneduce. Accessories are opaque white, brass, and black.

The kitchen is done in light beige, and the rubber tile floor is a striated pattern of beiges and browns. The window casements are theatrical gauze in bright pumpkin gathered very full and rigged to draw.

There is also a Far Eastern influence in the master bedroom with off white walls tinted in pale orange. The custom dyed rayon carpeting is light mandarin and drapes are a semi-sheer plaid with white background. The tailored bedspread is the identical color of the carpet. The wood finish is natural on red mahogany, and the room is accented with white and apple green.

At the other end of the house is the activity room, girl's bedroom, and boy's bedroom. In these, the shade of mustard, used previously, has been put to use again but in a very pale hue. Asphalt tile is the flooring in all three rooms and features a yellow ivory background with slashes of beige and brown. The two studio beds in the family room are covered in patterned bark cloth with loose cross stripes of beige, bark, and yellow. This fabric is also carried into the boy's bedroom in draperies and bedspread.

Decor for the home was created by Mrs. C. Bloom, Mrs. C. W. Muesse, Mr. H. Kollman, and Mr. Jerome Phalen, all members of Carson's interior decorating staff.

Two members of the department will be available at all times to offer advice and answer questions of visitors to the home.

The Trude Land Development Co. has constructed the Home for All America, featured in the September issue of Better Homes and Gardens magazine. The house will be open Tuesday through Sunday from 2 to 8 p.m and local police will direct traffic on weekends. Ample parking space will be available across the street from the home.

An Airman 2/c, he has been in service for three years and is at present stationed at Wilmington.

Earl McNeely Takes Alice Pohland As Bride

Miss Alice Marie Pohland and Clyde E. McNeely repeated wedding vows after the Rev. Orval Egbert in a ceremony performed at 2 o'clock August 7 at the Ebenezer Evangelical and Reformed church, Chilton, Wis. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin E. Pohland, Chilton, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl McNeely, Arlington Heights.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white embroidered nylon tulle with jacket. The skirt of her gown was made of four tiers of ruffles. Her fingertip veil fell from a lily of the valley headpiece and she carried a white orchid and stephanotis fastened to a white Bible.

Mrs. William Larson was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a waltz-length gown of blue nylon tulle and embroided net with jacket. Her headpiece was of blue for-get-me-nots and she completed her outfit with blue net fingertip gloves. She carried a colonial bouquet of mixed flowers.

The groom chose his friend, Kenneth Busse, Arlington Heights, as his best man. Robert W. Pohland, brother of the bride, and Donald Zoellner, Palatine, brother-in-law of the groom, ushered.

Mrs. Alice Noll played the traditional wedding march and Mrs. Noll and Margaret Aebischer sang "O Perfect Love" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony.

The bride's mother wore a mauve rose lace dress and feathered hat to match for her daughter's wedding. She wore white accessories and an orchid corsage. The groom's mother chose a navy blue dress to which she pinned a corsage of red roses. Her accessories were also of navy blue.

The young couple greeted guests at a reception at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony. Dinner was served to 65 guests at the church dining hall.

The bride is a graduate of National College of Education, Evanston, and will teach first grade at Paddock school, Palatine, this fall.

Favorites For Flavor

An excellent luncheon dish which is simple to prepare is being shared with us this week by Mrs. Russell C. Hansen.

It is for a creamy chicken souffle, baked in individual molds and served with a tasty cream sauce.

The souffle is a delicious combination of finely chopped chicken, bread crumbs, butter, milk and eggs. The cream sauce adds zest to the dish as it contains minced green pepper and onion. Mushrooms or pimento may also be added to enhance the flavor.

Mrs. Hansen usually accompanies the chicken souffle with green peas, a moulded frozen fruit salad, relishes and hot rolls.

The Hansens live at 15 W. Orchard in Arlington Heights. They have two boys, Douglas, 12, and Richard, 10. Mrs. Hansen is a member of Circle 10 of the First Presbyterian church.

Chicken Souffle

Salt and peper to taste.

Melt butter in saucepan and add dry bread crumbs. Then add the milk.

News of Rolling Meadows

HELENE BRISTOL, Editor — 2104 South Street — CLearbrook 3-8125

School Registrations

Parents are reminded that the school term is rapidly approaching, and that children should be registered for the fall term. Grammar school registration is held daily Monday through Friday at the Oak Street school in Palatine between the hours of 9 a. m. and 2 p. m. Children who will be six years old before December 1, 1954, are eligible for first grade, and children who will be five years old before December 1 may attend kindergarten. There is a registration fee for kindergarten attendance which is very reasonable (under $10), and parents are urged not to let this nominal fee deter them from sending their child to this important preparation for regular school. At the present time, it is planned to have 18 of the permanent classrooms ready for occupancy by the children September 7, the first day of school. All grammar school children, from kindergarten through sixth grade will attend school in Rolling Meadows. The seventh and eighth graders will be picked up by school bus at the bus shelter at Campbell st. and Wilke rd. and transported to school in Palatine.

Those students attending high school may be registered at the Arlington Heights high school daily. Students must have a health certificate from a registered physician which should accompany the student's registration. There is a high school registration fee of $9 per student.

Girl Scouts and Brownies

A meeting of all interested volunteers and mothers of prospective Brownies and Girl Scouts has been scheduled for Tuesday evening, September 7, at 8 p. m. at the recreation building of the grammar school on Campbell st. The chairman of the meeting will be Mrs. Busch, who is the neighborhood Scouting chairman for the Palatine district. It is vital that all mothers of girls who wish to join the Girl Scout or Brownie troops be present at the meeting, as vital information concerning their girls will be gathered — information which the children themselves cannot generally supply. Mrs. Busch will explain to the parents the purposes, ideals, aims and plans of the Scouting organization, and lay the foundation for the actual organization of the Girl Scout and Brownie troops in Rolling Meadows. A special mimeographed letter with an information form will be distributed to each Rolling Meadows home prior to the meeting so that some general information will be available about the number of girls eligible for the troops, their ages and the amount of interest in Girl Scouting in the subdivision. Remember, anyone having a daughter between the ages of 7 and 14 who is interested in becoming a Brownie or Girl Scout, should attend the organization meeting September 7. This is absolutely imperative—the cooperation of parents must be gained before the eager scouters can be organized into actual troops.

Accident

A tragic mishap with a power mower was responsible for the loss of two fingers on his right hand for Burt Trager of Oriole Lane. The accident occurred last Friday evening, and almost before anyone knew what happened, the tragedy had happened. Burt's neighbor, Irv Hvid rushed him to the Arlington police station. At once the Arlington police put Burt in a police car and sped him to the office of Dr. Robert Muench, who had been notified by the police operator that an emergency case was on the way. As soon as Dr. Muench realized what had happened, he had the police get an ambulance and sped Burt to St. Joseph hospital in Elgin where he operated on his hand. This is the second week in a row that Rolling Meadows and its residents are indebted to the Arlington Police department and Dr. Muench for their splendid cooperation and prompt response to the call for aid. Burt Trager, as well as the Glaskey family where the police responded so well last week, is an ardent Arlington police booster—very understandably. Burt is now home from the hospital, and restlessly recuperating. Burt, who probably is one of the best-known residents of the subdivision, being in charge of new "move-ins" for Kimball Hill and Associates, would like to hear from his many friends while he is confined to his home, or better still, like to see them drop in at his home on Oriole Lane.

Baseball Games

The latest "crop" of baseball games has produced three new victors. In a game with residents of Arlington Greens, the George st. Tigers were complete victors. The game last Sunday between Wilke rd. and Oriole lane resulted in a victory for Wilke rd. with a score of 18 to 12. Last Sunday was also the day of triumph for the team from South st. who defeated the Sigwalt st. team in a hotly contested game. Streets which have not yet organized their ball teams are urged to try this interesting method of increasing neighborliness.

Vacations

Laona, Wis., was the site which John and Lucille Doyle of 2204 Wing st. picked for their vacation—a real fishing spree! A really wonderful time was had by all—especially John who celebrated his birthday Friday, the 13th, in a rather spectacular way. He caught a seven pound Walleye — which was proudly displayed in the General Store of Laona since it was such an unusually large catch. To further stimulate matters for his birthday, however, John managed to get straddled between the boat and the pier—with the boat in motion. You can easily picture the scene with a rising young attorney rising but suddenly descending into the waves. John valiantly claims, however, that catching the fish made up for his dunking on his birthday —what else can he say? The Doyles returned with a large store of fish from their trip—only to frustratingly be encountered with the fact that none of their neighbors with freezers were home, and the fish were starting to thaw. Almost every refrigerator along that block in Wing Street gots its temporary stuffing with fish that night, until more suitable quarters could be found.

William Hofius of 2402 George st. has joined his wife, Marge, and three daughters — Linda, five, Peggy, three, and Mary, two—at Mineral Point, Wisconsin, where the Hofius family is visiting Mrs. Hofius' family. The family visit has a dual purpose —not only are the children and their parents enjoying a stay with the family, but preparations are underway for the wedding of Mrs. Hofius' sister.

The Tom Tatars of Campbell st. spent a happy vacation visiting local Illinois spots. Among the many points of interest which the family enjoyed were White Pines State Park, Charles Mound, the Black Hawk statue in Lowden Park, Apple River Canyon and Galena, where they took their three boys, Ronnie, Roy and Terry, to visit the home of President Grant. The whole family had a really wonderful time, and heartily recommend a local vacation to those people who drive long distances to see their scenery.

Dogs

Complaints have again been heard regarding the loose dogs in the area. Residents are again reminded that it is absoluetly essential and required by law that every dog or cat receive their rabies shots yearly and be so tagged so that in case of emergency such a precaution will be immediately apparent. Further, one must remember that neighbors really shouldn't be asked to tolerate loose dogs wandering across their new lawns, menacing their children and shrubs. There is no reason dogs cannot be properly penned —even if it's only a temporary fencing job — or walked on a leash. Unfortunately, that extra care is a part of owning a pet. We no longer live in Chicago, where many dogs, both strays and pets, wander at will—you live in a small, secluded community where your neighbors can identify the dogs molesting them. Aside from the vital health and safety principles involved, for the important rule of good-neighborliness one should observe the basic "dog conduct" rules.

Visitors

The Paul Williams family of George st. has just bid a reluctant goodbye to Miss Linda Williams, Paul's sister, who has returned to her home town of Friendly, West Virginia. Linda, who is fourteen years old and the youngest in the Williams family, will be attending high school back home this fall. She will have plenty of stories on hand to amuse her classmates you can be sure, after a five week stay in Rolling Meadows visiting the "big city" of Chicago.

A couple of "visitors" have temporarily forsaken their home in Rolling Meadows to go visiting themselves. Kenny Keller, the eldest son of Pete and Eleanor Keller of Wilke rd. has been visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Erickson in Chicago, and having such a good time he hasn't wanted to return. Mrs. Erickson is really showing Kenny the "town" having taken him on a trip to Riverview and downtown, and is constantly doing everything she can to make her grandson's visit more enjoyable. Kenny's younger brother, Bobby, has also been visiting. Bobby has been staying with his cousin, Nancy Layer, in Downers Grove, where he has been thoroughly enjoying himself, too. Their parents are beginning to wonder if they won't find their home in Rolling Meadows too "dull" after their exciting visits—but knowing the Keller boys, we're sure things won't be "dull" long after they return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Krause of 2407 Wing st. entertained Mrs. Krause's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Budd of Monterey, Indiana, for a week. The Krause children, Arthur Jr., Terry Lynne and Sherry, really enjoyed having their grandparents with them for their vacation. The Krause family took advantage of the week of their vacation which they spent in Rolling Meadows by putting in their front lawn—an avocation of a great many Rolling Meadows families these days. The second week of their vacation the entire family returned to Monterey, Indiana, with Mr. and Mrs. Budd to really relax after their lawn-planting vigors. The children took advantage of the trip by going swimming at Bass Lake summer resort. Another feature of the Krause family vacation was the rather belated celebration of Sherry's fourth birthday which fell July 17.

The Fred Schultz family of George st. have had their recent share of out-of-town visitors. Mr. and Mrs. George Steinmetz of Richmond, Michigan, who are the parents of Peggy Schultz, were here for a week's visit during the course of a vacation trip around Lake Michigan. After struggling through the Gary industrial district and the city of Chicago during rush-hour traffic on their way to the Schultz home in Rolling Meadows, the rest of the trip won't seem like much trouble at all! From Rolling Meadows, Mr. and Mrs. Steinmetz are heading up through Wisconsin to the Upper Peninsula of Michigan with a return home over the Straits of Mackinac. Just preceding the visit of the Steinmetz family, Fred and Peggy Schultz entertained a far younger visitor. Laurie Ellis Sedevic, the 15 month old daughter of Fred's sister, stayed with the Schultz family for a short while, but has now returned to her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sedevic, in Cary.

Deputy Sheriffs

Hooray! We can finally report that Rolling Meadows will be the happy recipient of really big news regarding their much hoped-for Deputy Sheriffs by the time of our next publication. A great deal of credit for the success of this venture must be given to Fred Schultz and his civic committee of the Home Owners' association. Without their really consistent and strenuous efforts this important issue would never have achieved such outstanding success.

Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chalfont of 2401 George st. had unexpected company to help them celebrate their fourth anniversary August 16. Roy and Betty were the happy couple honored with champagne toasts on this important occasion by two of their neighboring couples. Paul and Maryalice Williams and Jim and Dolores Kinnard pleasantly surprised the Chalfonts, and the cheerful neighbors observed the anniversary in "style."

Community Church

Last Sunday morning was indeed gratifying to the Rolling Meadows Community church since it saw by far the largest attendance to date. About ninety people attended the morning services, necessitating many folks standing. With the realization of how long a service can seem if one's standing, the church has ordered and received sixty new chairs which should prevent such a recurrence and which will be on hand for all future meetings. With the growth in attendance, the choir also continues to grow, both in numbers and quality. They are still looking for new members. Anyone interested in singing with this group is invited to choir rehearsal which is held Monday evenings at the recreation building, and is always followed by refreshments and good fellowship. The initial meeting of a woman's social group was held August 18, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Lois Hvid. The group was addressed by the wife of another Community church minister from Glenview.

The most important development of the C ommunity church is the announcement of the opening of the Sunday Church school on the first Sunday after Labor Day, September 12. The church education departments are headed by extremely competent people, many of whom are college graduates and who have had experience in teaching. A complete outline of the planned teaching curriculum and the nature of the church school work will be given to parents of prospective students. Registration for the Sunday school will be held the last week in August, and will be done on a house-to-house call basis by church volunteers.

Rolling Meadowites are reminded that the Community church office is now in operation. It is located at 2500 Meadow Drive, and anyone wishing more information about the church or wishing to contact Rev. Ringsmuth on any other matter is welcome at all times.

Party

Mrs. Dale Bycroft of 2300 George st. was the hostess at a home demonstration party last week. Many of her neighbors attended the party, and games and refreshments were the order of the evening.

Little League

Because of the inclement weather, the Saturday practice session of the Rolling Meadows Little League was "called" last week. Weather permitting, however, the regular practice session will be held this week. The boys will meet at the usual time and place—9 a. m. at the corner of Oriole lane and George st.—and will be transported to a Little League field for practice. While the Little League recruiting committee has tried very hard to cover all homes in the area to invite all interested boys to join the Little League activities, if any boy between the ages of 7 and 12 has been inadvertently missed, he is invited to attend the weekly practice sessions and join the other Litle League activities.

The Little Leaguers are furthering their "running" skills this week by delivering the Rolling Meadows Newsletter for the Home Owners' association. This type of civic service is typical of the "extra" benefits to the community which this outstanding organization offers. The Rolling Meadows Little League will inded be a great credit to its community.

The men behind the boys, the directors and officers of the Rolling Meadows Little League, have been working hard at the more mundane side of organization. They have begun to attack the difficult problem of finances, and have initiated plans to solicit funds and sponsorships from business organizations to cover the cost of outfitting the teams and making the Rolling Meadows Little League stadium one of the best in the country!

Annual Outing

Sunday, August 29, is the date for the first Rolling Meadows Annual Outing. Plan a basket lunch now—whether it is with a few of the neighbors or for the individual family. At this press time, it certainly sounds like loads of fun for everyone, especially for the boys and girls! The Borden Dairy company will have their calf, Hildegarde, on hand, and the company, with the assistance of Mr. Walker—the local Borden milkman and a Rolling Meadows resident—will pass out inflated balloons, comic books and half-pints of milk to the children attending the outing. The Pepsi-Cola Bottlinag company is furnishing a mobile refreshment stand, and will have a miniature Merry-Go-Round on hand for the tiny tots. The Squirt Bottling company will also be there with samples of their product. Many other activities and features are being planned by the outing committee, and needless to say any resident who would like to assist in this project would be most welcome. Contact the committee by calling Pete Keller at Clearbrook 3-2840, who will be very glad to get volunteer help.

Tennis champions of Arlington Heights park district recreation program are shown above, all smiles. Front row, Linda Golle, 4th, and Warren Myers, 3rd. Back row, Dione Naumes, 2nd, and Bonnie Benson, 1st. Absent is Jim Meehan, who placed 5th in the tournament among advanced class members.

Grammar School Health Program

Because of the lack of funds this year, the Palatine grammar school district will be unable to have a school nurse. To meet this emergency, the Palatine Registered Nurses club and the P. T. A. health committee are going to carry out the school health program. While this is merely a "stop-gap" measure and definitely not the preferred method of carrying out the school health program, it is sincerely hoped that by the cooperation of mothers and local registered nurses the regular program can be carried out in part at least. The health program for the grammar school children includes weighing and measuring all children twice a year. Dental checkup cards are mailed to all children every year, and physical examination papers are sent to all fourth and seventh grade students. The program also encompasses eye tests, hearing tests and a wood lamp check for ring worm. Since the school in Rolling Meadows is so very new, it is important that volunteers among the mothers be found to carry out this program for our school here in cooperation with the Palatine P. T. A. We know there are some nurses among the many Rolling Meadows residents, and their cooperation in this program is vitally needed. Volunteers are asked to please call Mrs. Thurman Sipp at Palatine 1340 or Wing Groves, at Clearbrook 3-1251. Possibly one main assistance to this program might be "baby-sitting" for one of the Rolling Meadows nurses or mothers to free them for participation. This is a really important project, and the need for volunteers to carry out this project for our own children right here in Rolling Meadows is extremely acute.

Lutheran Sunday School

The Lutheran Sunday school in Rolling Meadows is conducted each Sunday at 9:15 a.m. in the recreation building of the public school on Campbell st., near Meadow drive.

All children of the community are welcome to attend. The attendance has been good during the summer in spite of vacations and some hot weather. New children are being enrolled each week and the total number of youngsters in the Sunday school to date is 75.

The Sunday school is sponsored by Immanuel Lutheran congregation in Palatine and St. Peter Lutheran congregation in Arlington Heights. Three of the teachers are residents of Rolling Meadows. They are Mrs. Floyd Birt, Mrs. A. A. Amundson and Mr. Lynn Bozee.

Feehanville School

First day of school at Feehanville will be the day after Labor day, September 7. There will be more specific information as to bus schedules, the lunch program and the Prospect Heights students next week.

There will be a meeting at the Community house on Lee street in Forest River on Wednesday at 8 o'clock. This meeting is being held to enable the school board to report directly to the people of the community on the progress of the new school, the plans for the coming year, and the problems now facing the board. The board urges everybody interested in the school program to attend the meeting.

Introducing Smiley Gibson — the new janitor and maintenance man for the Feehanville school. Mr. Gibson has past experience in this sort of work, and his former employers have given him exceptionally good references. The school board is satisfied he will be a good man for the job.

New Director

The board of directors of the Forest River Home Owners Civic association, appointed a new director to fill the vacancy in the northeast section. She is Mrs. Kenneth Karnuth, and she will also serve as secretary during her term.

The ladies of the Birthday club met at the home of Mrs. Phyllis DeRusha in Des Plaines last Thursday. Mrs. DeRusha was very pleased with the lovely gifts she received. The prize winner of the evening was Mrs. Rita Badalamenti.

Mrs. Dorothy Levine and Mrs. Dorothy Hartman, chairman of the refreshment committee, are busy getting the menu lined up for the Sunday school picnic to be held at Lake Street East in the forest preserves August 28. It will be a pot luck picnic meal, and salads of all sorts, potato chips, hot dogs with all the trimmings, cake, ice cream and soda pop, were mentioned as part of the menu.

The teen-agers had another social last Saturday night with Mrs. Harold Broberg as chaperone for the evening. James Brewer donated a case of soda pop for refreshments, and Mrs. Paul Kleeman has offered to supply the group with all the soda pop they need at wholesale prices. The group has decided to hold their business meetings before the socials from now on, rather than have a separate night for it. Last Saturday they played musical chairs and danced the bunny hop and broom dance. Their meetings are from 7:30 to 10 o'clock.

Jimmy Brewer and Kay and Billy Phar left for Springfield last Tuesday morning, to play with Maine's summer band in the contest for Governor's trophy. The Maine band won this trophy last year, so they are not eligible again this year, but would be trying for a medal. It is a statewide, week-long contest, and last year there were 49 bands in it. Mrs. Roberta Phar was going along to chaperone a bus load of young musicians.

Our deepest sympathy to the Schwichtenberg family in the loss of husband and father Phillip, who died last Sunday morning at the Lorretto hospital in Chicago.

Welcome to our new neighbros, Mr. and Mrs. John Nowicki, R.R. 1, Box 29J, DesPlaines, formerly of Portland, Ore. They moved into their new home on Marcella Road July 17. They have five children, Paul who is eight, Joy, six, Nancy four and a half, Steve three, and Mary, who is one and a half. The two older children will be attending Feehanville school.

Congratulations to the Paul Badalamentis of Foundry road, on the arrival of another son, Paul Joseph. He was born on August 6. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Badalamenti, the 20 month old twins, Vincent and Vito, and baby Paul are staying with Mrs. Joseph Badalamenti of Chicago until their house is finished.

Young Eugene Bartucci, born July 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bartucci, was christened last Sunday at St. Mary's in Des Plaines. The Bartuccis had the godparents, John and Jenny Ciprini of Berwyn, for dinner at their home after the christening, and then they had a party later in the day at the Community house. The relatives plus a few friends made a gathering of almost a hundred, and they had a fine time dancing to accordian and guitar music. Baby Eugene received many lovely gifts, and they had many picutres taken.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Levine went on a trip to Fredonia, Wis., last Saturday, to visit Camp Awana. They report the boys (Robert Levine, Robert Martens, John Hanson, George Grenda and Phillip Roos) are having a fine time. They are bunking together in Echo cabin, which is in the Gitchee Gumee lodge. Their cabin leader is a college man from Wheaton

Mrs. Dorothy Hartwig and the two children, Paul and Janet, are back from their vacation in Sister Bay, Dore county, Wis., where they stayed on Mrs. Hartwig's grandfather's farm. They spent part of their vacation picking cherries in the big cherry orchard, and six-year-old Paul earned his first dollar.

Mrs. Rose Kirste of Woodland drive left last week on her vacation, to California.

Carol Larson, formerly of this district, has spent several days at her brother's home on Hill street.

Prospect Meadows

Vacationers

Mr. and Mrs. E. Moeller and son of Bunting Lane, have recently returned from a 2-week trip. They spent one week at Cedar Bluff, Neb., visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dale Jurgens. Traveling back, the Moellers came through Iowa and southern Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reily and daughter, Pattie, are home after spending their vacation at Sisters Bay, Wis., enjoying boating and swimming.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ardinger and sons, Peter and Scott, also spent their 2-week vacation at Sisters Bay, Wis.

Thank You

Mrs. Polly Herbert, chairman of Prospect Meadows Woman's auxiliary bake sale, wishes to thank the committee for their cooperation in making the bake sale a success. Mesdames Barbara Sell, Rosemary Vosburgh, Marilyn Kerezturi and Dorothy Walsh were members of the committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Carey spent a week of their vacation in New York and Washington, D. C. visiting friends. The second week they made a motor trip with their sons, Donald and Michael, to Iowa and Starved Rock. David Carey, Denver, Colo., and John Carey, Chicago, were house guests at the Carey home while the Donald Careys were vacationing.

Bake Sale

Friday the 13th was a busy day for women of Prospect Meadows. Ovens were lighted and expert cooks were busy making breads, coffee cakes, doughnuts, brownies, pies, cup cakes, rolls and cookies. The result of all this was a most successful bake sale held at Mt. Prospect laundromat Saturday.

Much credit is due to Mrs. Polly Herbert, 401 Larkdale lane, who, as chairman of the committee for the sale, put forth every effort toward a favorable outcome; also to Reub Potratz, who printed the very attractive flyers. All of Prospect Meadows extend their thanks.

Approaching Fair

In view of the approaching Prospect Meadows fair, Mrs. Arlette Klein held a meeting in her home, at which Mrs. Marilyn Peregrine was appointed chairman of block captains. The discussion regarding the fair, to be held September 11 and 12, resulted in a decision as to place and hours. Mrs. Peregrine will instruct the block captains in their duties for this particular event. Mrs. Jean Seeber, president of the Women's auxiliary, was also present.

Intermediate Girl Scout troop of Prospect Meadows enjoyed a bicycle trip Wednesday evening. Mrs. Dorothy Doyle, their leader, was unable to be present due to the critical illnuess of her father, but the co-leader, Mrs. Rosemary Finch, assisted by her husband, Don Finch, took the girls for a "bike-hike" which terminated at the park area in the community. Here, around a bon-fire, the Scouts sang songs, played games and toasted marshmallows. The girls attending were Susan Finch, Nancy Jarm, Linda Larson, Dorothy Schons, Charlotte Talo and Ann Wyatt. A special thanks to the Scouts for their diligent distribution of bulletins and flyers!

Vacation Over

Miss Dawn Hearl, 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hearl, returned Saturday, from a one week vacation in Antioch. Fortunately she came home in time to witness her baby sister, Pam, take her first steps. Pamie was a year old August 12, but celebrated her first birthday with a family party Saturday. Dawn and Pam also have a brother, Raymond, who is 5 years old.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. David Wyatt, 400 Oriole ln. Their new baby daughter born Sunday will be named Pamela. Pamela has two sisters, Ann, 11 years, and Liz, 4 years.

Friends and neighbors are happy to hear that the baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Le Brun is recuperating from his recent serious illness.

Vacationers

Many families have been enjoying out-of-town vacations. Some who have returned recently are the Careys, McReynolds, Murdocks, Rileys and Schons.

Miss Sherry Seward is vacationing in Wisconsin and Miss Nancy Jarm is visiting her grandmother, also in Wisconsin.

A cordial welcome is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Ruther and family of 409 Bob-o-link ln. Former residents of Oak Park, the Ruthers are sure they will enjoy living in Prospect Meadows.

One of our residents won the set of silverware at the china booth of the Prospect Heights carnival. The lucky people were Mr. and Mrs. McLoughlin of Bob-o-link ln.

At the Prospect Meadows Property Owners association regular meeting which was held August 12, important issues were voted upon. The drainage committee, whose chairman is Paul Tabar, presented a report and solution to the situation. The motion regarding expenditures was passed, and the association is now following plans for procedure.

Enjoy Roller Skating

Tuesday, August 10, several couples enjoyed roller skating at the Arlington roller rink. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Andy Bischoff, Mr. and Mrs. Don Finch, Mr. and Mrs. John Harland, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Klein, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Morales and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Seeber.

By now everyone must have noticed the almost complete abutments at Foundry rd. and Prospect Manor. These were completely constructed by the men of the subdivision, working in their "spare" time. With the addition of lights and name plates in the near future, this entry will be a valuable asset to the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Zschach of Westgate road are on a camping trip in northern Wisconsin, near Woodruff. They went to see the tons of pennies collected for Dr. Kate Newcomb's hospital.

Congratulations to Jobie Badalamenti on her fourteenth birthday. She celebrated with a canasta party. Received several beautiful gifts from her guests, Donna Huenning, Jackie Alexander, Mary Ann Leavey, Marge Kirste and Phyllis Schwichtenberg.

Mrs. Agnes Phares is back from her vacation in New York where she spent several weeks with her daughter.

Inductees of the Korea period, who did not enter on active duty status, and their dependents may be eligible for certain benefits under a new law, VA has announced.

Public Law 463, signed June 30, 1954, extends compensation and certain related benefits to persons who have incurred disabilities while reporting for induction on or after June 27, 1950, and to their dependents, on the same basis as has been authorized for inductees of World Wars One and Two.

REPORT OF AUDITOR

President and Members
Board of Village Trustees
Village of Arlington Heights, Illinois
Dear Sirs:

We have examined the fund accounts of the Village of Arlington Heights, Illinois as of April 30, 1954, and related operating statements (except special assessment accounts) for the fiscal year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

EXCEPTIONS

Water and Sewerage Department inventory of merchandise April 30, 1954 was estimated. Water and Sewerage accounts receivable are shown at book balances without other confirmation. Confirmation requests from Depositors in Escrow have resulted in only one reply (a second request is now going out). The accounting of arrest notices was incomplete due to change to new forms. Accounting of parking violations was limited to verification of police department receipts by way of autographic register copies.

OPINION

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet, operating and fund statements subject to the preceding exceptions present fairly the financial position of the Village of Arlington Heights, Illinois, at April 30, 1954 and the results of its operations for the year then ended for all funds except special municipal accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding years.

Respectfully submitted,
E. F. Laurin & Associates.

Mt. Prospect Hardware Wins Twilight League Championship

THURSDAY, AUG. 19, 1954

MAC SAYS

BY G. A. McELROY

ONCE AGAIN the high handicap golfers in the twilight leagues came through to help the winners cop another Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap golf tournament, with Mt. Prospect Hardware the winner. It was Harry Dodds, a 24 handicap player, who shot a 95 to put his team over the top in the final foursome.

In 1950 Bill Shassberger and Carl Engel, 22 and 21 handicap players who grossed 87's, helped Arlington Bank win the title. The following year Ed Maha and Vince Carlson, 28 and 24 handicap men, helped Hook's Nursery win by a stroke.

Wulbecker Furniture and Whitton Realtors tied for honors in 1952, with R. Haase 90-22-68 and G. Peterson 97-25-72 helping their respective teams. This year all eyes were centered on Jake Marino, affable No. 4 man of Rapp's Big Freeze, a 36 handicap player. Jake came in smiling with two 61's, netting 86.

JAKE'S HANDICAP was not the greatest in the history of the tournament, however. Bob Carncross had a 39 handicap last year, also shooting 122. There have been three 30-handicap men in the previous four years of the tournament.

To seven golfers the tournament was not a new experience. Virgil Rolfs had played in '50; Hugh Seddon in '51; Harv Lauffman, Roland Becker and Gerald Goble in '52; and Jerry Rogers and Larry Kaspar in '53.

Otherwise, there were 25 golfers who were playing Inverness for the first time, except for a few warmups by some. Among the new golfers in the meet was Dick Brodnan with L'Nor Cleaners, the youngest competitor ever to vie for honors in a Paddock meet. Not yet 16, Dick will be a junior at Arlington Heights high school this fall. He shot 94.

JOHN LANDY, who holds the world's record of 3:58 in the mile, thinks he may concentrate on the two mile where he has run the fourth best of all time. The reason is that he recognizes that Roger Bannister, who beat him in the mile at Vancouver's British Empire games recently, is the better miler. Both Bannister's and Landy's "under four minute" miles previous to their meeting were of the laboratory type with no real opposition, but with pace makers set up and planned in advance. At Vancouver it was man-to-man competition and while Landy had plenty left at the finish, he could not run fast enough to beat Bannister.

Seven men in the Vancouver mile ran under 4:08 and the Big Ten can be proud of Rich Ferguson of Canada and the University of Iowa who was third with a 4:04.6, one of the best times ever recorded by a Big Ten athlete.

There is no question but that the mile will be a feature event in the Olympics to be held in Australia in 1956. We doubt if Wes Santee of Kansas who came closest to the four minute mile before Landy and Bannister cracked it, will be able to seriously challenge this pair.

COLLEGE ALL STAR football game at Soldier Field was the poorest exhibition we have seen in the 10 times we have viewed the spectacle. The Lions had the game in the bag after five minutes and actually played under wraps with their full regular lineup never in the contest.

It was a real let down after braving the Soldier Field and outer drive traffic jam. We will watch it on TV from here on in and get a lot better view of what goes on. The halftime show put on by the Rangerettes from Texas had it all over the football part of the evening's program in our opinion.

High school football gets underway August 30 according to state regulations and the first game may be played three weeks later. Around this area physical exams are being scheduled and equipment checked out in advance of this date. No one may appear in a game until after 15 practices so it is important that all grid candidates plan to be on hand when the opening drill starts. Varsity candidates at Arlington Heights and Palatine will have had their required physicals well in advance of the opened on practice through new arrangements this year.

WHEN WE HEAR OF unusual golfing feats and holes in one we are always reminded of two shots, each made by Stan Arendt, pro at Inverness, and John Courtney, a member of the club. When Stan Arendt was still under 21 and not many years removed from the caddy ranks at Ravisloe Golf club, he shot two consecutive holes in one in a tournament.

John Courtney scored a double eagle two on the 490 yard 11th hole at Inverness a few years ago. He drove to the top of the ridge which makes the hit from the tee a blind shot, and then drove the ball 250 yards to the green and into the cup. That feat, in our opinion, ought to have twice the recognition of a hole in one.

Rendezvous Cabin 2nd In Paddock Links Meet

Mt. Prospect Hardware is the new champion of the twilight golf leagues! Representing the Mt. Prospect Monday league, the foursome of Bob Hornbostel, Bob Milligan, Howard Bersted and Harry Dodds netted 303 to finish ahead of Rendezvous Cabin of Roselle league by six strokes. In third place was Dunteman Dairy of Arlington Heights league with 320.

No finish of any of the previous Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap golf tournaments, extending over the past five seasons, has incited more interest. It was the score of Harry Dodds, No. 4 man with Mt. Prospect Hardware in the last foursome, which decided things.

He finished the 18th at Inverness Sunday at 6:35 p.m. with a 48 for the back nine for a 95 gross, 71 net, and the match for his teammates by six strokes under Rendezvous Cabin's 309.

THE ROSELLE entry was pulling for victory up to that point. Roloff had netted 77 to the Hardware's Hornbostel with 71. Hugh Seddon netted 88 for Roselle league with the Hardware's Bob Milligan netting 76 to hold an 18 stroke lead.

The sixth foursome pitted Rendezvous' Art Bothen against Howard Bersted of the Hardware squad. Bothen netted 74. Bersted 85, to cut the winners' lead to seven strokes.

Ray Seddon then came in with a 47 on the second nine for Roselle to win low individual net (and a dozen golf balls) with a 70, and spirits were high among the DuPage county golfers. A 55, or worse, on the back nine for Harry Dodds, a 24 handicap man, would have given Roselle the trophy.

BUT HARRY, who had grossed 47 on the first nine, came back with a 48, and the marbles, as the final foursome came in off the course after a hot, humid, six hour session.

Second place Rendezvous Cabin gained solace when team member Ray Seddon won low net with 70. In second spot in this category were Hornbostel and Dodds of the winners' aggregation with 71's

Order of finish of the six other squads found them in this order: Dunteman's Dairy, a 12-stroke third, 320; Mt. Prospect Lions, 322; Rapp's Big Freeze, 324; L'Nor Cleaners, 335; VFW Lions of Bensenville, 338. DeMichele Realty was disqualified when Dick Byrne had to walk off the course after the 14th hole to go back to work, driving a busload of people to a church rally at Soldier Field.

LOW GROSS of the day was a 79 by Hornbostel, the only figure under 80 among the entire group of 32 competitors. The "neutral" course on which none of the eight leagues compete, was expected to bring higher scores than some of the men were used to shooting, but the excessive heat and humidity also entered into the picture.

Glen Roloff of Rendezvous Cabin and Joe Marcin of L'Nor Cleaners were next on the gross list with 81's. Scores were higher all along the line, compared with last year's event at the same Inverness course. Low team net in '53 was 295, tied by two squads. Low individual gross last year was 78, low net 65.

Barclay Holds 4 Point Lead Over Hardware In Monday Golf

By a strange quirk of scheduling, the three top teams of the Monday night Mt. Prospect golf league met the three cellar dwellers last week. Play was under the most difficult circumstances of alternate rain, wind, darkness and sunshine which discouraged some of the faint hearted.

The rugged Barclay Clearbrook team struck it out the full nine holes and wound up with a 6-1/6 to 3-5/6 victory over Annen and Busse which put the Engineers out ini front again by a big 3-1/3 points.

THE BEST Mt. Prospect Hardware could do was 2-1/3 points against Moler's 5-2/3 points which dropped them into second. Van Driel's retained their hold on third in spite of a 8½-1½ defeat by Mount Prospect State Bank.

Despite the trying playing conditions ten birdies were scored: E. Walters, No. 9; W. Leutz, No. 10; R. Louthain, No. 11, 17, and 18; H. Kutchera, No. 11 and 14; W. Peterson, No. 12 and 18; M. Weber, No. 13.

IT WAS ANNOUNCED that the playoff date between the Monday and Tuesday night leagues will be Sunday, August 29. The same afternoon has also been reserved as a day of golf for all league members and alternates. Prizes will be awarded in all classes for lowest net scores based on final seasons handicaps.

Cork & Bottle In Tourney Play At Marengo Sunday

Cork and Bottle softball team won another game Sunday night under the lights at Palatine when Winnetka fell by the wayside, 4-3.

The local nine is entering tournament competition the end of this month. Cork & Bottle will compete in the northern Illinois invitational tournament at Marengo, which opened Tuesday and runs through August 29. The Palatine squad will meet Eddie's Lake View aggregation of Racine, Wis., at 9 p.m. Sunday, August 22.

If the bottlers can win, they'll take Elgin VFW Wednesday, August 25. Fans planning to drive over for Sunday night's game are urged to meet at Cork & Bottle at 7 p.m. August 22, to help form a transportation caravan to support the Palatine softballers.

ANOTHER MEET scheduled for the local team is the amateur softball association's tournament slated for Aurora in the near future. Two planning sessions were held a Palatine the past two Monday nights with 30 representatives attending. Charles Johnson of Libertyville is commissioner of the tourney. Expected to compete will be 18 teams from northern Illinois.

In Sunday's game Winnetka took a 1-0 lead in the top of the second on one hit by Rexford, a single which eventually saw Rexford score. Cork & Bottle tied it up in the third when Lee walked, was sacrificed to second and scored on a single by Douglas.

THE LOCALS tallied again in the fourth when Wickersham singled, stole second, moved to third, and stole home. Winnetka evened things in the top of the seventh but Palatine came back with two runs on a single by Heiden, single by Schmidt, sacrifice by Douglas, and singles by Majewski and Musson.

The visitors tallied once more in the ninth. On the mound for the locals was Heiden, relieved by Loutsch. They permitted seven hits.

First Call For Midget Football In Arlington

All boys interested in midget league football under direction of the Arlington Park District are to meet in the grandstands at the park Wednesday, August 25, at 10:00 P.M.

At this time boys will be given permit cards to be signed by their parents. Plans for this season will be explained.

The midget football league will again be under the direction of "Bus" Ormsbee, head football coach at the Arlington Heights high school. All boys participating must live in the Arlington park district and be in the 6th, 7th or 8th grades of school.

Physicals Necessary Before School Opens

A hot dog cooked over an open fire is truly an American delicacy, but it can spoil your disposition and fresh appearance when mustard or catsup from it drops onto your play togs. Don't let spots become old and "set" into washable fabrics, warn technicians at the American Institute of Laundering, research and educational center of the laundry industry.

Fresh stains are more easy to get out than old ones but all stains are difficult because most require special removing agents. Institute chemists recommend dabbing or pressing the stained area with a cloth soaked in soap and water and sending the garment to the laundry as soon as possible. Rubbing the stain may cause the area to spread. Informing the laundry routeman of the stain will bring it to the attention of experts at the laundry.

Final Little League Pictures To Run Next Week

More Little League pictures are being run this week by Paddock Publications, with ten Arlington Heights and four Palatine squads scheduled to appear on picture and sports pages this week.

Pictures of Little League teams in Mt. Prospect, Prospect Heights, Wheeling and some of the teams in the WRIB league of DuPage county will appear next week. The rest will be in the week following.

Prints of all of these teams, except those in Palatine, can be secured from Paddock Publications when orders giving name, address, telephone, and town and name of team are accompanied with one dollar per 5x7 print. All orders received by Saturday will be available the following Saturday.

Orders can be left at any suboffice of Paddock Publications, with pictures returned there, if desired.

Palatine team pictures were taken by Bak studio and can be contracted for at their shop in Palatine at the same dollar figure.

Dick Welty copped the batting championship in the Palatine Little League this year with 28 hits in 50 times at bat for a .560 average. Finishing second was Joe Bissing with a .510 based on 25 hits in 49 times at the plate.

Complete listing of batting averages as released this week, along with pictures of the four major league teams in the program. Most of the games were well attended with interest in baseball at a new high.

Two boys who hold 1.000 averages for the summer, but lack official credit due to the few times at bat are Bob Smith, who was at bat four times, and Dick Sundling, who had one pair of "at bats".

Local Golfers Win Honors In Tourneys

Local area golfers continued to gain the headlines this week as Dick Hauff of Arlington Heights, George Dayiantis of Arlington Country club, and Harry Hodgson of Palatine performed creditably on three different courses.

For Hauff it was the caddie medal to lead qualifiers in the national caddie tournament at Columbus, Ohio. Dick shot 76-70:146, knocking two strokes off the Ohio State course on the second round. He picked up a $250 scholarship as medalist, and will add it to the $250 scholarship he won at the same place two years ago.

Still up for grabs is a $1,000 scholarship to the title winner, play in which started Wednesday of this week. Dick is planning to enter Florida State college this fall, scholarships in hand.

GEORGE DAYIANTIS won the Cook county amateur golf tournament at Columbus Park in Chicago Tuesday. He shot 33-33:66, total 133 for 36 holes. in spite of a two stroke penalty for cleaning his ball in a sand trap. Two others were tied for second place at 137. Championship flight was slated to start Wednesday morning.

Then came Harry Hodgson's effort in the Great Lakes amateur at North Hills country club, Milwaukee, where Harry ranked second, one stroke behind Tom Brennan's 69. Hodgson notched 34-36, firing four birdies to turn the trick.

Another local golfer competing at Milwaukee is Louis Rosanova of Mt. Prospect with 35-39:74.

A dozen golf balls was the prize of Ray Seddon of Roselle's Rendezvous Cabin in Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap golf tournament at Inverness Sunday. Ray went out with a 42, came back with a 47. His 19 handicap enabled him to win low individual net and the dozen golf balls as prize.

rently four points off the pace in its own loop . . . The foursome was on top, though, on the eligible date, August 7.

A brother combination, first in the history of the tournament, was found in Hugh and Ray Seddon from Roselle . . . Ray, a 19-handicapper, beat brother Hugh, a 11-man, by ten strokes.

The 36 by Howard Kamps of Dunteman's Dairy on the first nine was just one over par at Inverness . . . It was not the low of the tournament, with 35's being carded by Harry Lavin of Bensenville in '52 and Leo Walch of Roselle in '51 . . . The latter two were at Mt. Prospect, both of them pars . . . Four men shot birdies: Glen Roloff on the 2nd, Bob Hornbostel on the 3rd, Howard Kamps on the 7th, Ray Seddon on the 8th.

Bob Thollander, former Bensenville high school star, has a 9-7 record to date, pitching for San Jose of California league ,in Class C competition . . . L'Nor Cleaners Trims Smith & Dawson To Extend Lead In Rob Roy Golf League

L-Nor Cleaners bounced back from a nightmare they had at the Paddock tourney to beat the Smith and Dawson gang for domination of first place in Rob Roy league. Joe Marcin sparkd the victory with a one over par 37 for the back nine at Rob Roy. The teams split the matches at 2 each but the Cleaners capitalized on the 3 team points to win, just as they have been doing to every team. all season long.

A four point win over Kirchhoff Insurance next week will clinch first place. Anything less than four points will make it possible for Smith and Dawson to still nose them out. Smith and Dawson take on Wulbecker Furniture next week and will be pressing for all seven points in a last desperate effort to steal first.

The two important matches will bring together the following pairings:

L-Nor Cleaners vs. Kirchhoff Insurance; H. Laufmann vs. H. Cokenower; Joe Marci vs. Jake Mueller; V. Rolfs vs. A. Wilmes and W. Wilkerson vs. N. Peterson.

Smith & Dawson vs. Wulbecker Furniture; Jim Rowader vs. M. McDonald; A. Orwiler vs. W. Heubner; R. Peterson vs. P. Wulbecker; and R. Boroughf vs. A. Trever.

OTHER BIG EVENT of the night, a match between Len Arnold and Raleigh Westfall, was won by Len, 2-up, with an even par 36. Len went 1-up on the 13th with a birdie to draw 1st blood. Raleigh evened the match on the 14th when Len took a bogie and then lost the next hole with double bogie. What ever the trouble was it was all Len needed because he matched par the rest of the way in making Raleigh go for birdies on every green. This victory gives Len undesputed leadership of league for individual play.

Rhodes Appliance won, 5-2, over Wulbecker Furniture, as a result of Grinnell's 39 which helped his team take three points outside of the matches.

The Webber Paint gang had the can of red out again to stroke a 4-3 win over Park Ridge Stop and Sock. Len Arnold's 36 was instrumental in this victory.

LAST PLACE Whitton Realty had a fling and scored a 5-2 win over Kirchhoff Insurance. Here was a close one but the land agents had the little bit of oomph required to get the points.

Koske Excavators halted the Wheeling Bowling Lanes' bid for a chance at first place by beating them, 5-2. The gophers stole the three team points the bowlers needed to climb into third and instead, dumped them down to sixth.

Prospect Heights Service station worked over the Prospect Heights Pharmacy for a 5-2 win. Stan Fill and his gas house gang have no respect for any team and this week pounced on the pill peddlers to narrow their hopes down to the third place berth.

Michaels IGA edged a close one over Dunteman Dairy, 4-3. It almost looked like the milkmen found their trouble, until the last scores came in and turned the tide.

All members of the league should post starting times next week with Pat McDonald for the Sweeper to be held Sunday, September 12, and to notify the secretary whether they will attend the banquet.

Mt. Prospect All-Stars Whip LaGrange, Lose To Melrose Park

by BETTY KIRCHHOFF

Mount Prospect All-Stars won one, then lost Thursday and Friday at Blue Island in the Little League sectional tournament.

Thursday the All-Stars whipped LaGrange, 2-1, in a game that was a little too close for comfort. As on their previous tournament games, Mt. Prospect stepped off to an early lead Freddy Boedeker, first batter for Mount Prospect, was safe on a fumble at short. He went to third on a single by Peterson and an infield out, after which he scored the first run of the afternoon when Denny Hahn smashed a double to center-field.

LAGRANGE TIED it up in the fifth when Larry Kemp hit a homer with a man on base. Larry Kemp, in all the excitement, missed touching home plate and when Mount Prospect called attention to this fact he was declared out. Thus the score stood at a 1-1 deadlock. But not for long!

Mount Prospect scored their winning run in their half of the fifth. Bob Leekley led off with a two base hit. Freddy Boedeker moved him down to third with a sacrifice bunt and Fritzie Peterson drove him in when he sent a towering fly to right.

FRIDAY THE 13TH was unlucky for the All-Stars. They were mauled by Melrose Park, 13-0, in an affair that saw Melrose Park score nine runs in first inning, including a grand slam home run by Joe Geano. It was just one of those days for Mount Prospect.

Besides the terrible score. Bob Hammarley, starting pitcher, was hit on the leg with a line drive. Fortunately he suffered only bad bruises. All due credit has to be given to Ronnie Sartore, who pitched beautiful ball for Melrose Park!

Fourteen of the 18 putouts made by the victors were strikeouts by Ronnie, who had Mount Prospect batters baffled. He allowed just four hits. Their loss to Melrose Park eliminated the All-Stars from the Little League tournament.

The American Derby, which dates back to the inaugural meeting of old Washington Park in 1884, could easily determine the champion three-year-old of 1954. The sta.-studded division to date presents several ranking candidates for the honor on the merits of their accomplishments in earlier stakes.

Just about all of the field that contested the Arlington Classic in July have been named for the Derby, the total roster numbering 40.

Redlegs Win Pony League Championship At Heights

by BOB FRISK

Bringing down the curtain on a successful venture into Pony League baseball, Arlington's Redlegs bounced the luckless Orioles, 6-2, August 10 at Recreation Park to clinch the division championship.

Confronted with the slants of Lee Magnuson, a center fielder by trade, the Reds scored in every inning, exploding for three runs in the third.

Al Hutchinson toiled for the champs and allowed six hits. Magnuson was knocked for nine safe blows in his four inning stint.

MAGNUSON LED the Orioles at the plate with two one basers and Ralph Carlino and Bob Barbour collected a pair of safeties for the Redlegs.

Several Pony Leaguers traveled to Park Ridge Friday night to play an arc light tilt as members of the Arlington Junior Legion team. Their efforts were rewarded with a convincing 5-2 victory over the Park Ridge nine.

The boys who made the trip, as selected by Manager Dave Ryden, were Bob Lockwood, Ed Kelley, Tom Thackery, Paul Incapreo, Guenther Reinke, Ralph Carlino, and Jerry Klement.

KLEMENT TWIRLED four innings and was credited with the win. Lockwood and Kelley were the most impressive at the plate.

Saturday the Redlegs fell to a Villa Park Pony League squad, 4-3, as Guenther Reinke absorbed his first loss of the summer. Summaries were unavailable for this game.

DeMichele Realty is holding onto a 3½ point lead as the Arlington country club golf league goes into its final night of play, position night. The realtors will meet L'Nor Cleaners, fighting for first place trophy.

Prospect Heights Pharmacy, which took it on the chin Friday, will be attempting to salvage third place by meeting Arlington Floor. How One American Gained Revenge Over Curious Concierge In Paris

by BILL DILLINGHAM

How many countless thousands of American tourists have cursed their concierges and wished that France would dispense with these "guardians of the building"?

How many letters that should have contained money never arrived? And how many times have tourists eyed their concierges with justified suspicion?

HOW MANY TIMES did friends come to visit, and the concierge emphatically bar the door explaining that Monsieur so-and-so was not at home? And all the time the host paced the floor above waiting for his guests!

How many arguments take place in France that are not fomented by somebody's beloved concierge?

Alors! Very few!

BUT REVENGE finally came to one set of tenants recently. A concierge who "guarded" a house on the rue du Bac engaged herself in the practice of opening the letters of the house's occupants each day. She considered it her duty to keep her self informed and up-to-date on the personal matters of the tenants. With the aid of steam from a pot of boiling water she managed easily to open and then re-seal all correspondence addressed to that building.

Her curiosity, however, did not pass unnoticed by an American student who rented an apartment in the building. The suspicious fellow wrote to a friend who supplied him with a mixture of chemicals that were especially selected to trap the delinquent concierge.

THE CHEMICALS, in fine powder form, were enclosed in an envelope and dropped in a mail box. The next day the letter reached its address, but not without being immediately exposed to the steam pot.

The powder, however, was not passive to heat and moisture. It broke out into a red gas that stained everything in its vicinity. This, of course, included the hands and face of the concierge. Her face was as red as her dinner wine, but not out of shame!

THE SHOCK of having red hands and face sent the concierge running out the door alarming her neighbors. She went to the local police bureau to file a complaint (it seems ridiculous, but she went anyway and was immediately accused of violating the mails. The American was just a few steps behind her and ready to file his complaint.

To all those who have passed idle hours dreaming of ways to reform their concierges, news of this incident was greeted with celebration! It is so seldom that a concierge's crimes are exposed, that this story was gobbled up with relish by the American tourists.

THE CONCIERGE system is an old French institution that serves the main pipe line of gossip. The local police generally overlook a concierge's minor crimes because it is through these employees that they are supplied with detailed information about tenants in any building.

Barrington Officials Ponder 25 Cement Bags

Barrington village officials are still pondering their 25 bags of cement.

They were distributed through the town by an unheeding truck driver who let them drop along Main st., North Cook and Franklin, and route 59. Threatening skies spurred street department employees to clean the cement off the streets before rain could turn it into concrete.

Police were told the truck was from the Park Supply Co.

He graduated from the University of Illinois in 1943.

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

by William O. McGill

It was a crowd the like of which almost none of us has seen. It was the largest group of persons ever to squeeze into Soldier Field. The traffic on the Outer Drive had backed up to the crawling state at North Ave.

Someone had estimated that there would be four hundred especially chartered buses. The guess was fantastically low. A brief survey indicated that there were special buses from Dubuque and Des Moines, from Grand Rapids to the east and west; there were buses from Springfield and Indianapolis to the south; and the best I could see to the north was Milwaukee.

ONE COULD SING in his heart, "Like a mighty army moves the Church of God," for all of these people were on the way to Church! The Festival of Faith, the initial public ceremonies of the World Council of Churches Assembly, was the attraction. They were coming from north and south, from east and west ,to affirm, "Jesus is the Hope of the World!"

Almost a year ago, there were grave questions in many minds. These seats had to be sold out—at least six months in advance. Would local churches buy and pay for "souvenir tickets" that far in advance? Once bought, would the people attend? The financial consequences were fraught with disaster. The possible blow to the prestige and influence of the church if the stadium were not filled might have been more unfortunate.

THE FESTIVAL of Faith was a venture of faith. In its actuality it is a witness to the world. Enough persons to make up a good sized city — more than the population of Springfield or Peoria, more than the population of Davenport and either of the smaller Tri-cities — enough persons to make up a good-sized city made common declaration of their Christian faith, common confession of their sins, common witness to the world.

It was an excellent evening of worship and praise. More than that, it eventuated in action. On every hand, one heard comments on the courtesy and orderliness of the group as contrasted with those who undertake to go home from sporting events, for example. Christian worship should always lead to Christian action. We may all hope that it leads to more zealous action in the witness to our common Christian faith throughout the world.

Gains Promotion

Harold C. Weiss, 213 Windsor Drive, Arlington Heights, has been promoted to second vice-president of Northern Trust Co., in Chicago.

Mr. Weiss joined the credit department in 1946 as a senior analyst, and as elected an assistant manager in January, 1951. He received a B.S. degree from Marquette university, and is a certified public accountant in Wisconsin and Illinois.

Mr. Weiss, his wife and two sons, have lived in Arlington Heights 7½ years. He spent three years in the southwest Pacific in World War II.

Modern Dairying On Farm TV Show Sunday

Modern developments in dairy farming will be vividly illustrated on "Farmtown, U.S.A." Sunday, August 22, when Clyde Hueber and his son, Russell, from DeKalb county will be featured guests.

The half-tour television show is now aired at 1:30 p.m.

George Menard, master of ceremonies for the popular program that presents a variety of farm animals with the farmer guests, will learn about Heuber's 234-acre farm and his 45-cow Holstein dairy herd.

Hueber has a pipe line milker, bulk cooler, and a milking parlor to make his herd management more efficient. A self-feeding bunker silo and an automobile bunker silo and an automatic hay feeder are other equipment used in cutting down labor and boosting production.

Al Golden, farm adviser in DeKalb county since May 1, will be a "Farmtown" guest to report on farming activity in the county and will emphasize the importance of agriculture to the economy in the county.

Both the MEN and WOMEN have raved about the refreshing newness of the Riviera's exterior design and the careful, detailed planning that makes the interior floor plan so convenient and livable.

They particularly like the privacy and convenience of the FOUR BEDROOMS on the seond level . . . the beauty and convenience of the 1½ CERAMIC TILED BATHS . . . the practical sliding door closets with built-in shoe racks and overhead storage cabinets . . . and last but not least — THE DINING ROOM "L" for formal dining and entertaining.

The "Riviera" is located in Windsor Heights in northeast Arlington Heights, just east of Eastwood Terrace and north of the site purchased for the proposed new Junior High School. 'Tree Sitter' Is Answer To Drought Time

Before you run off to the seashore or to that mountain resort, remember the pets you are leaving home - your trees.

They can use attention while you are gone, advises P. C. Heintzman of the Davey Tree Expert Co. Since you can't take 'em with you, a vacation time suggestion is a "tree-sitter," someone to water your trees while you're away.

During the "dog days" a tree needs human help most. Actually, in this hot, often dry season, its owner is likely frolicking on an extended vacation.

Slaking a tree's thirst is a special job. Soak the entire root area of each tree two to three hours each week during the real hot spells. Watering should take in the same area of ground covered by the branch spread. Trees transplanted this past Spring will need particular attention. Their root systems propably have not yet developed to a point where they can find enough moisture to support the foliage.

For best results, and to avoid surface run off, use a "soil soaker", a canvas hose from which water seeps slowly into the soil. Or put a sprinkler under the tree.

Too many homeowners water their trees only as an afterthought to a thorough lawn sprinkling. Oddly enough, meeting the water requirements of your trees helps supply your lawn's water demands

Duck that drab drought look. It will pay off with healthier trees and prettier landscaping.

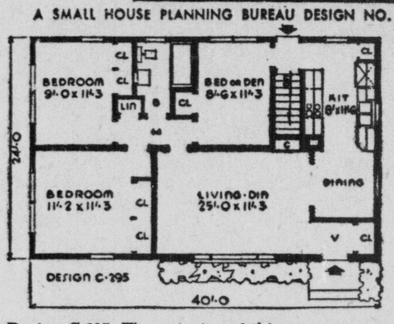
New Ideas In Homes

A SMALL HOUSE PLANNING BUREAU DESIGN NO. C-295



Design C-295. The exterior of this attractive house is finished with wide siding, except for stone facing on the living room wall.

A wide overhanging eave protects the picture window and the front entrance. There are three bedrooms, bath, living room, combination kitchen-dinette and a full basement. A pair of folding doors can separate the dinette from the living room.

Wardrobe closets, with overhead storage, are used throughout, in addition to the linen cabinet in the bedroom hall.

Other points of interest are the planters under the picture window and beside the entrance steps, high side bedroom windows for added wall space, and recessed tub. Floor area is 960 sq. ft., with cubage of 18,240 cu. ft.

For further information about Design C-295, write the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minn.

Anyone Can Be An Artist By Using Glass 'Canvas'

Even if you can't draw a straight line, you can produce some striking portraits, pictures and designs by using window glass as your "canvas" according to June Cabot, interior design consultant and television personality.

Miss Cabot said you simply place a portrait photograph, picture or design you admired in a magazine on a flat surface and cover it with a sheet of window glass. Then, selecting the colors you want, paint the picture or design right on the glass.

When you have finished, Miss Cabot said, you may spray the painting with artist's plastic to keep it from rubbing off and back the glass with a strip of cloth or paper of complementary tone. For instance, if you paint a Chinese-red swan, you may wish to back it with black cloth.

Subject: Small Gifts

We might as well face it; Christmas is THE day of the year and it's not surprising that several months should be spent building up to that time of Good-will and Generosity. . . To think and plan in advance does not seem to me to be "rushing the season" - but merely good sense and an eventual saving of last minute "nerves" especially when you make your own gifts. This takes time - and hurrying to meet deadlines is not conducive to the Christmas Spirit.

Here's an idea for those of you who have scraps and short lengths of material stowed away in closets and dresser drawers: MAKE APRONS, using the waist-hugging plastic rings. They're on and off in a jiffy (no bothersome ties) take about half a yard of material and you can use any kind that is washable - from organdy to gingham. . . You know how a curtain shirrs onto a rod? Same procedure is followed - hem three sides and make a wider hem at the top . . . Then the apron slips on and off the ring for washing; easy, simple and inexpensive and you can make a dozen aprons to fit one ring. One gal is making a complete gift set . . . number 1 is a Christmasy item real fancy and dressed up, using some scraps of lace. Number 2 is a denim work-apron, that has a pocket sewn clear across the bottom (with partitions) like a carpenter's apron. Number 3 is a summery concoction out of nylon sheer and the fourth one has an applique of leaves (iron them on) on plain colored broadcloth . . . Ring comes small, medium and large - guaranteed unbreakable and costs 60 cents. . . The small ring will fit a young teenager - and it might be nice to make a matching mother-and-daughter set . . . We have them on hand.

Teenagers also like those reflector fluorescent alphabets that are used on bikes, cars, scooters, etc. Monograms can be made up to use on luggage and whole names can be used on mailboxes for identification - in fact, you can make almost any sort of a sign you need. It's easy to DO IT YOURSELF because the letters come with pressure-sensitive backing that makes an all-weather application on any smooth clean surface. Each initial stands 1¼" high and costs a dime.

We try to buy only items - both large and small - that have a MAKE-IT-YOURSELF angle but every once in awhile, something new comes along that seems so downright SENSIBLE (the kind of thing you wonder why it wasn't designed long before!) and we just get the best of our willpower and buy, willy-nilly! . . Such an item is a pen and pencil combination; the streamlined ball-point pen, uses lead, too - and sells for a dollar . . . Girls at the grocery checking-out counters would certainly find them useful! . . And then there's the MAGIC PENCIL sets, designed for both men and women . . . it's ever at hand because of a magnet clip - and there's one that fits the telephone, too. . . A thoughtful small gift that sells for $1.50. . . Speaking of magnets - have you seen the story books for youngsters that sell for $1.25 (there are three different stories) and the chief character ambles on and off the page at the whim of the manipulator. We've tried them out on the small-fry set who sit open-mouthed - and bigger sisters (could be baby-sitters!) can hardly wait till they can get their hands on the gadget so they can try out their "dramatic art!"

How about "family" pictures . . do you have a collection of eyesores (not because of the people!) but because of the miscellaneous character of frames and sizes? You may haul out Aunt Minnie when you know she's due for a visit - but why not please her enormously by letting her see that she's part of a permanent display of favorite people? . . Any kind (from snapshot to portrait) can be made uniform in size and encased in a lifetime guaranteed laminated frame (no glass to break - clean with damp cloth). Five or six in a row can add a real Decorator's touch to a wall. Kind of expensive ($4 each) but start your collection with your most cherished picture; such a nice Christmas morning surprise! Hand-colored and takes at least three weeks.

CALLING ALL ARTISTS AND HOBBYISTS - come and show at the open air Village Art Fair, Sept. 4, 5 and 6. Contact me at the Studio (corner of Northwest Hwy and Glencoe Rd) or call Palatine 1789.

Extend Invitation To Techny Sunday

Divine Word Missionaries at St. Mary's Mission House have extended an invitation to all towns in the vicinity to attend the Marian Day being held on the seminary grounds, Sunday, August 22, Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

St. Mary's Mission House is located on Waukegan rd. (hwy. 42A), between Glenview and Northbrook. Its two yellow towers with red tile roofs are a landmark for Glenview pilots.

The Marian Day will begin at 8:30 a.m. with a Solemn Pontifical Mass offered by His Eminence, Thomas Cardinal Tien, S.V.D., in the seminary chapel. His Eminence is the exiled Archbishop of Peking, China, and has been residing here the past four years.

At 3:00 in the afternoon there will be a sermon on Mary Queen of the Missions in the seminary chapel by Father Clifford J. King, S.V.D. The sermon will be followed by a procession along festively decorated paths to an outdoor Marian shrine on the rolling campus where an Act of Consecration will be made and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament given.

The rest of the day will be left free for private devotions.

Q. The hyacinths I plant never flower well after their first Spring. What could be the reason?

A. Hyacinths more than other spring-flowering bulbs, like a light, sandy soil. Try mixing in a lot of sand around them. This should end your troubles.

GARDEN TALKS

Written by
FRED C. HEUCHLING
Chicago Horticultural Society

by FRED HENCHLING

Sad to relate, many property owners, even though they give close attention to their flowers and lawn, aren't sufficiently awake to the needs of their trees and shrubs. A flower or vegetable garden, if neglected, can be brought back to perfection without too great effort within a year or surely two years. A lawn that becomes somewhat run down infested with weeds can be repaired and rehabilitated by proper methods within a year.

But a tree or shrub once left without food and moisture and protection from injuries may become so weakened in the course of time that the first ice storm will ruin it, or infestation of borers or other insect pests or diseases will kill it beyond redemption. A tree or shrub once lost cannot be replaced in its original size and vigor often for five or ten years or more, to say nothing of the expense of its replacement.

That's why the Chicago Horticultural Society urges every home owner with trees and shrubs on his property, to give them the minimum care and attention that will assure their continued grace and beauty and healthful existence.

EVEN THOUGH many people seem unaware of it, a tree or shrub needs food to thrive and remain sturdy just as much as any other plant. The feeding of a tree, however, may best be done in Spring or very early Summer. August or September are a little late for feeding. Food applied now will tend to produce new growth that will not become far enough advanced to resist the ravages of Winter.

These things, however, every property owner should do for his trees and shrubs during the heat of Summer and into the Fall. During every week of dry weather every tree and shrub should receive a heavy watering. This means leaving a hose or soaker on the ground without a nozzle and let the water run slowly until the soil is soaked. Water thus applied is better in the area beneath the branches rather than close to the trunk of a tree or base of a shrub.

It is not wise to wet the foilage of trees or shrubs during the heat of the day. While it may do no direct harm, it may encourage the growth of fungus such as leaf spot.

DURING THIS season, sucking insects, such as aphids, settle underneath the leaves or on the young green shoots of trees or shrubs. They may be so tiny as to be hardly visible, except on closest examination, sometimes of green color, other times of darker tint or even black. For aphids, get a nicotine sulphate spray, often called Black Leaf 40. Mix it in water as directed on the package and spray the entire tree or shrub wherever aphids nestle, and especially under the leaves.

It is great temptation when mowing the lawn to run the mower sharply against a tree trunk in order to shear off the long blades of grass close to it. Bumping a tree like this injures the bark and permits boring insects and diseases to enter. The healthy bark of a tree is nothing but a protection for the inner live tissues and hence its injury is the same as an abrasive on your skin so far as the tree is concerned.

It is always a good plan to loosen the surface soil around trees and shrubs, which is done by cultivating. However, the tool used for cultivating should not penetrate more than an inch or two or else it will destroy some of the valuable feeding roots and retard the growth of the tree or shrub.

Lastly, while the leaves are on the trees and shrubs, dead branches show up readily because they are bare of foilage. They are dangerous if large and blown off by a wind storm, but regardless of their size, they too will permit diseases to enter the healthy portions of the plant. So this is the time to cut off all such dead branches of trees and shrubs.

Worried About What To Plant This Fall?

by OTTO H. AMLING

The autumn gardener is the really dedicated soul who can plant enthusiastically though realizing there will be no visible result for many months afterward. But — when Spring comes — such patient waiting is rewarded richly. In the Chicago area it is the early-bloomers that are most brilliant and beautiful. I mean such faithful perennials as hyacinths, narcissi, tulips, iris and oriental poppies. And let's add that beauty of the Mid-West — peonies. Few later flowers can equal the glamour of our fall-planted gems. All the foregoing, as well as lilies, should be planted in the months immediately ahead.

First on the "Fall" list is the oriental poppy. It will probably bloom for you the very first spring providing you get the roots planted by September 10th.

WHILE POPPIES demand early planting of roots, other flowers — bulbs — tolerate setting out until the ground freezes. This is especially true of tulips. They can be planted until real winter arrives. Genrally speaking, however, early fall planting is best because — while you don't see it — there's underground growth, both of root and sprout.

Like in all growing things, fall-planted spring flowers need a sturdy root system and that takes time. So get your roots and bulbs in early enough for them to stretch their "legs" far and wide before the winter freeze puts them to sleep until Spring. Early planting means earlier and bigger flowers and healthier plants.

FOR THE MOST effective display, plant bulbs in circular groups of five or six in the perennial bed. Space such clumps with groups of other varieties in between. Thus when tulip-time arrives you'll have splashes of color well distributed. Leave space in between spring-flowering clusters so that when these perennials are through blooming you'll have room to pop in the summer annuals and thus keep your garden plot colorful until frost.

It seems to me we get more questions put to us in fall than in spring and I'll try to record a few of the commonest here:

Q. Now it's summer and all the spring-flower foliage has disappeared. I can't tell where I have bulbs already planted and where there are vacant spots that I could use for the planting of new bulbs this fall. What's the solution?

A. Well, you can at least fringe the outline of your perennial bed with new plantings. But better, next year do this: wherever a bare spot appears plant summer flowers in such areas — zinnias, asters, snaps and the like. When fall comes, pull these out and plant bulbs where the annuals have been growing.

Q. TO PROTECT MY perennials should I cover them with a winter mulch before cold weather arrives?

A. I hope you don't imagine you are covering your garden to keep it warm. Winter mulches are intended to keep the frozen ground evenly frozen through the winter so that roots will not be torn and plantings tossed about by alternate freezing and thawing

Keep Hens Cool And Egg Production Up

Hot hens don't make such hot layers. Don Bray, extension poultry specialist at the University of Illinois college of agriculture, says anything you can do to keep your hens cool on hot days will pay in more and better eggs.

Here are few things that can happen to a hen when the thermometer climbs above 90-95 degrees.

Her body temperature may go up 2 or 3 degrees. She may eat only half as much feed as she normally would. She may drink twice as much water if it's available. The size of her eggs may drop 10 percent. Shell thickness may go down by 20 percent or more.

BRAY SUGGESTS having plenty of cross ventilation to permit air movement in the house no matter from which direction the wind blows. A wide slot ventilator under the north eave, large doors in the east and west ends of the house and removable windows close to the floor in front of the house all help. Keep nests away from the walls.

Keep heat out of the house by insulating the ceiling and ventilating the loft. Seal off the loft with insulation board, or use a layer of straw on wire screen tacked to the underside of the joists. You can also put a coat of aluminum paint on the roof to reflect the sun's rays.

Provide plenty of cool, clean water with an automatic watering system. Sprinkling a little milk or water on the feed will help get the birds to eat. But don't wet down more than they can eat in a few hours, because wet feed will mold or sour quickly in hot weather.

Urge Sale Of Stored Corn Now To Aid Drouth Area

The sale of about three million bushels of government-owned corn at market price in drouth-stricken Southern Illinois was recommended by Charles B. Shuman, president of the Illinois agricultural association.

In a letter to assistant secretary of agriculture J. A. McConnell, Shuman asked that the stored corn, which will be subject to insect damage during winter months, be sold during the next 60 to 90 days.

"Each year the angoumois grain moth does considerable damage to stored corn in the southern part of Illinois," Shuman said. "Almost without exception, the Commodity Credit Corporation has been forced to move this damaged corn at considerable discount onto the market during the winter months."

Selling the corn while it is still damaged would not only prevent loss to CCC corn, but it "would materially assist livestock feeders who are very seriously threatened by feed shortages in the drouth area," the State Farm Bureau president asserted.

Shuman pointed out that the angoumois moth area coincides with the most serious drouth section in Illinois.

Second Brood Corn Borers Serious Threat To Late Corn

Heaviest infestations of second-generation European corn borers in the past five years are now threatening late-planted cornfields in northern Illinois.

Entomologists of the Illinois Natural History Survey and University of Illinois college of agriculture at Urbana urge you to check your late-planted fields for borer egg masses. If you find a large number, spray now to help prevent heavy damage.

INFESTATION of second-brood borers will probably be the heaviest since 1949, says H. B. Petty, extension entomologist. Farmers can expect to have as much damage from this second brood as they had in 1949. Late-planted fields in the area north from Bloomington will be hardest hit by the borers.

Field surveys just completed show that 60 to 90 percent of the first-generation borers have pupated, and the moths are now laying eggs on the late-planted corn.

CHIEF DAMAGE from the borers will come in the form of stalk breakage and ears dropped on the ground by harvest time. In addition to damaging this year's crop, the second-brood borers live through the winter and produce next year's crop of borers. You can't count on help from the weather to control second-brood borers, so Petty urges you to spray now if you have a heavy infestation. Spraying later will not help, as the spray will not control borers after they get into the stalks.

Spraying for borers will require high-clearance ground machines or spraying from airplanes. DDT should be applied at the rate of one and one-half pounds per acre.

MOST EARS are already formed at this stage of the season, but borers may cause the ears to be chaffy or light. Late-season borers usually feed in the upper part of the stalk, in the shanks and ears and to some degree in the lower parts of the stalk. Heavy rain or windstorms before harvest may cause excessive stalk breakage and ear droppage.

Farmers are also facing another threat to their corn crop in the corn earworm. Infestations this year are the heaviest in years. There is no control for earworms in field corn.

Eggs have now been laid on the silks of the early corn, and in some areas 10 to 20 percent of the ears are infested. Other cornfields where silks are fresh will be infested during the next week or two. The earworm tunnels into the ear, causing ears to be deformed and often moldy and rotten.

Export Of Agricultural Products Is Increasing

A University of Illinois farm economist reports that U. S. agricultural exports seem to be turning upward.

L. J. Norton says that between 1951 and 1953 average annual agricultural exports dropped sharply because of big cuts in the export of cotton and wheat.

But a reduction in supplies of these crops in other exporting countries and continued high use of cotton abroad have recently increased in the buying of U. S. cotton. Exports from July 1953 to April 1954 were 15 percent above those of a year earlier, and in April they were twice as large.

THIS INCREASE did not require price cutting or subsidy, and cotton is now slightly higher in price than it was a year ago.

Exports of wheat and flour were about 40 percent lower for April. But poorer crops in other countries in 1954 will provide more room for U. S. Exports of wheat in the year ahead. U. S. wheat exports are now heavily subsidized.

More rice and tobacco—two traditional exports—have been shipped this year than last.

Exports of products in which Illinois farmers are most interested held up better than cotton and wheat. Soybean exports for the recent nine-month period were up more than 50 percent over a year earlier. They go both to Europe and the Orient, and shipments will likely continue on a large scale in 1954-55.

FOR THE NINE months exports of corn ran about two percent under the previous year. They are now being subsidized to the extent of 15 cents a bushel. With European livestock and dairy enterprises expanding, we will probably continue to export corn.

Exports of lard were down because of short supplies. Recently they have increased. Exports of tallow and grease—our principal surplus product from our livestock production—continued high, up over one-third from a year earlier.

At cut prices the government has moved large quantities of cottonseed and linseed oils to foreign countries. It is now moving a small quantity of butter.

DOLLARS AVAILABLE to foreign countries have increased. There is a trend toward reducing import restrictions on U. S. products. With smaller supplies of some products in foreign countries and more realistic pricing of U.S. products, the trend in our exports should be upward. This is a factor in markets for Illinois soybeans, corn, hogs and wheat, which together yield over half of Illinois farmers' income.

From July 1953 to April 1954, imports of agricultural products, which are now valued at nearly five percent below figures of a year earlier. The big import items are coffee, rubber, cocoa beans, sugar, meats, wool and grains. The ones that compete most with Illinois products are South American canned beef, European canned ham and Canadian oats. Total meat imports are equivalent to about two pounds per capita, or only a little over one percent of our domestic production. Imports of meat have little effect on our market.

Tell Program For Dairy Day At Illinois Sept. 9

Merrill Warnick, president of the American dairy association, will be the main speaker at the 1954 dairy day at the University of Illinois on Thursday, Sept. 9.

In his dairy day talk, "Producer's Part in Present Situation," Warnick will discusss some of the problems facing the dairy industry.

Warnick has had extensive dairy experience as operator of the Warnick Holstein Farm at Pleasant Grove, Utah. He is a past member of the board of directors of the Holstein-Friesian association of America.

THE DEPARTMENT of dairy science has planned a full program for dairy day visitors. Activities will start at the Stock Pavilion on the Urbana campus at 8:30 a.m. DST. Following registration, visitors will tour the dairy farm for a first-hand look at some of the research work.

Also on the morning schedule will be exhibits and reports of breeding, silage and roughage studies and calf-feeding tests.

The afternoon program will start at 1 p.m. at the University of Illinois auditorium. G. W. Salisbury, head of the department of dairy science, will outline the part the university and the agricultural experiment station will take in future dairy advances.

M. H. Alexander recently returned from an assignment at the Allahabad agricultural institute in India, will give an illustrated talk on dairying in India. The address by Warnick will wind up the program.

See Increase In Hog Marketing In Chicago

Iowa and Northern Illinois will sell more hogs in the next six months than they did a year ago, a survey of nearly 600 farmers in the area reveals. The largest increase in sales will occur in September and early October.

November and December sales will be up from last year, but not as much percentage wise as in the earlier fall months. This Chicago stock yards survey indicates that hog marketings will reach their peak in November. However, farmers plan to sell almost as many hogs in December.

Projected marketings for the next six to seven months—based on pigs born, sows bred and stated breeding intentions — indicated that hog marketings will average 13 per cent above corresponding months a year earlier.

The Palatine village board let the contract for the new reservoir to Peter Knowe. His bid of $1,749 was the lowest of three opened.

Schaumburg town board bought the old Palatine fire truck for $350 and then sold it to Bloomingdale for the same price. It was decided to buy a new truck with hooks, ladders, etc., and build a town hall and engine house combined.

Croquet has become so popular in Itasca that it's being played at night by lamp light. The click of balls could be heard as late as 10 o'clock the other night.

Our game warden gives all the Itasca gun sports to understand that there is a fine of $25 to $50 for shooting a prairie chicken or quail.

Only 11 tickets were sold at the Arlington Heights station for the Lake Geneva excursion last Saturday. This will probably be the last time such an excursion will be run from this locality.

The telephone men are building a third line into the country from Palatine. The farmers in the vicinity are taking advantage of all the modern conveniences these days.

Eleven carloads of butter, eggs and other perishables were thrown about when they were derailed a block west of the Bensenville roundhouse.

Deaths this week:

Mrs. Margaret Horgan, 58, on her farm west of Palatine. She was the wife of Charles, a Chicago attorney.

Mrs. Mayme Sanford, formerly of Arlington Heights and the wife of Dr. Sanford.

Harry Everding, 35, Elk Grove, the last of three sons born to the surviving parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Everding. The youngest son, Fred, died in November, 1923, and George, the eldest, a few years ago.

The Arlington Packing Co. is Arlington Heights' newest defense plant. As soon as all of the machinery arrives, 16 women will be employed on each of two shifts.

Rain has failed to save farm crops in this area since it arrived too late. The ear corn crop has been cut in half and most tomatoes have burned up.

Lightning struck the Otto Zars barn on his farm south of Itasca Monday afternoon with the fire that resulted causing $6,000 damage.

Commissioner Busse Known as Father of Cook County Paved Roads

A 19th century deputy sheriff, who was responsible for the construction of Northwest Highway, this week predicted a vast network of toll roads for the future.

He is William Busse, 90, a county highway commissioner since 1900. He retires this fall after more than half a century of continuous service in behalf of better roads for Cook County.

"We have a good system of roads," said Busse. "All heavily traveled highways are paved, and the gravel road is swiftly becoming a thing of the past."

This man, who officiated at the opening of the area's first paved road, warns that in the future there will have to be more highways and more control if roads are going to keep pace with high-powered automobiles and high-speed drivers.

"People are in too much of a hurry," he sighed. "We're at a point now where the public wants toll roads. If drivers want to pay for them, then such a system is what we need."

To maintain good roads, he urged that trucks be strictly controlled on weight and speed. He asked such enforcement for farm as well as commercial trucks.

GOOD ROADS and safe roads have been of special interest to William Busse all his life.

This interest was developed early by his grandfather, who for 27 years was highway commissioner in Elk Grove township. "I was at his elbow all the time, learning about roads."

From 1890 to 1900 he was deputy sheriff of Cook County. Now the only living member of the staffs during that decade, Busse drove twice a month in horse and buggy and sleigh over the northwest area of the county.

"I soon learned the value of good roads," said Busse. "Even as a boy I appreciated their importance. It took me six hours to drive into Chicago with a load of produce and five hours to return. Now farmers make two trips a day. Good roads have helped make this progress possible."

In 1900, he was elected to the Board of Highway Commissioners for the first time.

"Orginally, we were concerned principally with the building of bridges. But in 1913 the Tists Good Roads Law provided for a county highway superintendent and the licensing of automobiles. The coming of the Auto Age heralded the coming of age for good roads. The automobile become the source of money for badly-needed construction."

The new law made possible the issuance of bonds by the board and the construction of new highways with state aid.

The first bond issue, for two million dollars, approved the paving of Milwaukee Ave., which became this area's first such road.

"THE ORIGINAL BRIDGE and road law didn't provide for paving in towns," said Busse, "so Milwaukee ave. was paved from the Des Plaines river to Niles during 1914 and 1915. This original paving is still in use. During the depression, a 15 million dollar bond issue was voted to widen the street."

His greatest achievement was the construction of Northwest Highway, completed in 1920.

Busse recalls the old days when drivers had to take side roads and zig zag from Des Plaines and Barrington, a new highway was desperately needed.

Through his efforts, the second bond issue for five million dollars contained provisions for the new highway. It was the first direct route between Des Plaines and Barrington and made an important contribution to the growth of the northwest area.

The original program for road construction called for paving only main roads to Chicago.

But Busse, who pioneered the Illinois gas tax, also pioneered a new approach to road planning.

"I have always," said Busse, maintained that we needed not only good roads, but also a SYSTEM of good roads connecting the villages as well as main highways to the city."

AFTER THE PAVING of Milwaukee ave., Higgins and Rand rds. were improved, and these bebecame the county's first decent highways.

Busse, president of the board from 1897 to 1910, is one of Illinois' top authorities on roads. In 1952, the Board of Commissioners honored him for his service in behalf of better highways.

He moved to Mount Prospect in 1894 and built the fourth house constructed in the village. "It was just an old, dilapidated subdivision."

A life-long Republican, Busse never lost an election, even when Democrats swept most all other state and county offices.

Public life?

"It's too expensive today," smiles Busse. "It takes back-bone to be a public servant."

QUITE CONTRARY

BY MARY

For years now those who knew us best have unjustly accused us of being a hot house plant. Because we did not go out into the dawn breathing deeply of the morning dew, we were thought to be lacking in appreciation of nature. "Oh, that sunrise," our nature worshiping Mother would say, "didn't you see it?" It was our sad lot to have to admit to having hugged our airfoam pillow just a bit closer at sunrise time.

In winter the accusations flew even thicker. Because we sat close to the open fire in preference to taking what is laughingly called a good brisk walk, we were twitted about our pale, and sallow cheeks. "Get out into the open more to tone up the good old system," we were advised. We are nothing if not kind and it was with difficulty that we refrained from telling our well-wishers that we would rather be dead than be toned up. On us, we like to think, sallow is a better color than purple. Purple is what we turn when we are cold.

So this year we have been sent to the country because it is so good for the kiddies. It has come as a severe shock to our family to learn that the country and Mama are not such strangers as had been supposed. We were brought up on a farm. And on that farm there was a lake. And in that lake there were some fish. And at those fish we aimed a worm from the day that we were old enough to toddle down the lane with fishpole over our shoulder.

As the young boy cousins who allowed us to fish with them felt that girls were strictly for the birds, we baited our hook, removed all and sundry fish, and cleaned same.

We are now spending some time on the Fox River. We have invested in some high powered fishing equipment as the days of the bamboo pole seem to be pffft, and we fish. And, when we run out of minnows, the fish nowadays seem to be fussy creatures, we go and get more. Our family now regards us with awe that they should accord the Compleat Angler. We are a woman among fishermen. In fact, the small ones now want to know if fish think and look to us for the answer. You can bet your boots we give them one.

And, we want all to know that the two fish the we have caught and that are worth keeping are worth about seven dollars and fifty cents each. Nothing niggardly about us, nosirree.

Political Leaders Pledge Vigorous Support for Blue Ballot Amendment

The more than 200 civic and political leaders, attending the kick-off reception of the campaign for the Blue Ballot Reapportionment Amendment, heard positive promises of full support from leaders of both Republican and Democratic parties.

Governor William G. Stratton and former Governor Adlai E. Stevenson headed the array of leaders who pledged support.

Governor Stratton called the Amendment "a much needed basic change in state government. It takes no rights away and restores rights to all the people of Illinois. It would be incredible if the people were to vote this down or fail to vote on it through lack of interest. No people in history willingly gave up their voice to be heard. Its defeat would be a blow to representative government in Illinois."

Former Governor Stevenson, commented, "It is a good idea to do the right thing at least once every 50 years, and I want to add my signature to the rolls of those seeking fair and equal representation. It is a long felt necessity."

The two candidates waging vigorous campaigns for the United States Senate also agreed emphatically that the Blue Ballot should be approved.

Senator Paul Douglas in a telegram from Washington stated: "I stand unalterably for the right of every man and woman of voting age to be represented equally with others in the House of Representatives in Springfield as well as in Washington. Legislative reapportionment to achieve this result in Illinois is long overdue."

Joseph T. Meek, Republican candidate for the United States Senate, attended the reception and said, "Most certainly, justice and equality are to be desired and are above the partisan level. I know this will pass because of the leadership behind it."

The evidence of inter-party harmony went so far the Republican National Committeeman C. Wayland Brooks, in speaking for reapportionment added, "I have been authorized by Democratic National Committeeman, Col. J. M. Arvey, who had to leave early, to say that I am speaking for him, too."

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Conkey, National Democratic Committeewoman, invited Republican women to join with Democratic women in working at the precinct level for the proposal. Mrs. Helen Dormitzer, Chairman of Republican women's activities in Cook County, immediately accepted the offer.

Democratic County Chairman, Richard J. Daley, and Republican County Chairman, Edward F. Moore, also pledged "wholehearted party support."

Tell Need For More Polio Treatment Funds

Iron lungs and other respiratory equipment have meant the difference between life and death for 1,000 polio patients so far this year and thousands more will need these breathing machines to keep them alive before the end of the year.

This was disclosd by Dr. Kenneth S. Landauer, assistant medical director of the national foundation for infantile paralysis, in explaining "one of the underlying reasons" behind the current Emergency March of Dimes campaign which will run until August 31.

Dr. Landauer, revealing that the percentage of severely paralyzed patients had been increasing during the last fey years, gave these two reasons for the rise:

1. Many critically paralyzed patients, who in former years would have died, now survive because of improved care and treatment.

2. Polio is attacking more adults and a higher percentage of these patients suffer severe paralysis.

"While many of the new polio patients requiring iron lungs and other breathing aids this year will need them only for a few days or weeks, many will become long-term prisoners of their iron lungs. They will join the almost 2,000 respirator patients from previous years whose horizons are still limited to their six-by-three-foot machines."

Marijuana Farmer Arrested By Lake County Officials

A former mental patient, who wrote post cards to government officials telling them how poorly they were managing public affairs, was arrested last week for growing marijuana in his back yard.

Edward Kuehl, 40, of 564 Deerpath rd., was arraigned Wednesday at 9 a.m. before Justice of the Peace Ray J. Reardon in Waukegan.

He was arrested by Lake County officials after they visited his Deerpath rd. home and found a garden of carefully cultivated mariujana weed growing in back of the house. Some of it had been nurtured to a height of 6 ft.

Mrs. Kuehl, who admitted she had been supporting her son for years, denied that he had ever sold any of the weed. He had long been known as an addict to Barrington police, who said he had grown marijuana along the E. J. & E. railroad tracks before moving to the country.

Police said the Deerpath operation was more complete, however, and included a small drying shed. They cut the weeds and sprayed them with oil.

Kuehl's post-card writing supposedly occurred when he had inhaled too freely of marijuana. It had subjected him to investigations from postal inspectors, secret service, and F.B.I.

One such episode sent him to Elgin state hospital for several months. An attempt will be made to have him re-committed for proper mental and physical care.

Brides To Be

The following marriage licenses were issued last week to residents of the north suburbs by Cook County Clerk Richard J. Daley:

David Bergen, Barrington, Nancy Macdonald, Barrington.

Clyde Davidson, Palatine, Vera Davidson, Palatine.

Wayne Ellis, Palatine, Marjorie Homeier, Palatine.

Richard Shefner, Palatine, Eva Kionig, Wheeling.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

FROM PATTY McARDLE

Dear Peg:

It's a wonderful facet of human nature that old friends, when meeting again, can take up right where they left off the last time they saw each other, even though during the interim none of the promised letters was ever written or received. Until a few days ago, I had not seen my dear friend, Florence, since the Christmas holidays in Indianapolis. We, however, had broken all previous records and written each other once since then.

The Beckers lived right across the alley from our home in Indianapolis (our parents always called the "alley" a "driveway", but to us, by the very nature of its cinder composition and the fact of its length and service to five or six families, it was obviously on "alley").

THERE WERE FIVE girls in their family, all considerably older than I, except Florence, who was practically my own age — only three years older. I can't remember when she didn't live next door, nor can I remember when we first started having tea parties around my little red table in our backyard, or playing in the lawn sprinkler, or even when we started dressing up in her older sisters' formals and jewelry (when they were not around, of course).

I can, however, remember our days at Public School No. 70, especially our walks to and from the halls of learning. Funny, how vividly I can recall kissing Mother "goodbye" in the morning, crossing the alley between our houses and meeting Florence in front of hers, then walking to the corner, turning, and, at the first driveway, looking down it and waving to Mrs. Becker, who was always there at her kitchen window watching for us. I can remember, too, the utter loneliness of that September, when Florence entered high school and I was left behind.

NO PART OF MY summer vacations was as eagerly anticipated as my annual visit at the Beckers' cottage at Macatawa, Michigan. Here, for two weeks, we swam, climbed dunes, played tennis, sailed, bicycled and ate huge double-dip ice cream cones.

My fondest dream, upon being graduated from high school, was to follow in Florence's foot steps and go to Stephens College, but my parents, prefering that I attend a coeducational college, prevented this dream from materializing (it's just as well—I might never have gone to Northwestern and met Bob!). During my school holidays, we had wonderful talks—I had all the world shattering problems of the college sophomore to discuss and she, having just begun her social work, all the problems of the human race.

UPON GRADUATION from Northwestern, Bob and I were married. A year later Florence and Jim were married. Then I had Megan and Bridget and she had Stephen and Nancy and is expecting another in October.

It was fun having her and her children visit us for two days. Just as always, we had lots to talk about, lots to laugh about, and a little to weep about. Now, I'm sure that it will be a long time before we see each other again, but no matter how long, when we do we will be as close to one another as the day we promised to be "best friends." Time can never alter a friendship that is timeless.

My love,
Patty.

THE FENCE POST

Continue Support

Merle Guild Unit No. 208 of the American Legion Auxiliary, Arlington Heights, wishes to state it will continue to support and aid the girl scout movement despite the action of the American Legion in its department convention.

Our post, the Merle Guild Post, has already taken its stand with the Girl Scouts and we wish to go with them because we believe that the Scouts is the organization doing the most to inculcate the sense of loyalty and citizenship in our youth.

It has been reported the 1953 handbook is in error, but the scout leaders have corrected these things in the 1954 handbook now going to press. Neither Merle Guild Post nor the Unit will withdraw any support, but will continue to encourage and aid the girl scouts as we have done in the past.

Pay Raise

The Palatine village board is soon to pass on the proposed pay increase for the Palatine police department. The proposed patrolman's raise is from $335 per month to $345 approximately 3%; the chief from $415 to 435, less than 5%, and the new position of Lieutenant or Sergeant $375.

These figures are close to some of the lowest paid employees of the village, exclusive of their chance to earn overtime pay. The police department is the most self supporting department of the village whose revenue from the parking meters and traffic fines are due to the efforts of the police. There has been an increase in taxes, business licenses, parking meters and population.

The police are on duty all hours of the day and night, in rain, snow, ice and sleet. They must stay on duty until their job is finished and must appear in court on their days off and they do not get paid for overtime, and some are forced to work other jobs when off duty to support their families.

How many of the board members are earning or can live on $335 per month? It's easy for them to set another man's salary, but can they tell them how they can live on it.

A good employee is a satisfied employee. Support your police, call your village board members and urge them to grant a fair pay raise to our police department.

Trash Fires

A protest in your paper about the menace of smog from smoldering trash fires in Arlington Heights, and a similar letter in the Elmhurst paper, have moved me to write of the same plight in Roselle.

To waken in the night with irritated nostrils and a stinging throat is a most uncomfortable experience, especially when it occurs at intervals over a period of years, and when, these summer nights, there is no haven to be found about one's house where the carbon and stench laden breeze does not penetrate.

Some articles have listed such inhalations as possible cancer causes. For the most part such conditions come from nothing more vicious than thoughtlessness. An editorial or cartoon could quickly present and probably relieve the situation over your reader area.

Rebecca F. Herrmann
Roselle

Survey Unfair

Your recent survey on the number of "out of town" cars using the railroad parking lots as against the number found in shopping lots would seem to infer that the village of Arlington Heights benefits but little from residents of nearby unincorporated areas and these same residents visit Arlington Heights only to use the railroad lots when communting to and from Chicago.

I consider your survey unfair, incomplete and not representative. Instead of making the survey in the afternoon of a Friday, it should have been made during the evening of that day and on Saturday if you want to determine the number of shoppers from unincorporated areas doing business with the merchants of Arlington Heights.

Very few housewives living in unincorporated areas are able to leave their children during the day and do their shopping, or else have no car as the family car is parked in a lot while the husband commutes to Chicago on the train.

It seems that you are attempting to justify the use of parking meters at railroad lots by pointing out through your survey that the local merchants benefit but little from "out of town" people who apparently are in the majority in the use of railroad parking lots.

Arlington Heights is well equipped with good stores and is attractive in that respect. However, the parking situation is intolerable. Parking meters on the railroad lots won't correct this situation but may serve to drive the "out of town" customer to adjacent towns with much better facilities for shopping parking.

Thanks Police

I wish to commend the Arlington Heights police for their prompt action in helping me Friday night when I cut two fingers while using a power mower. Their assistance in calling a doctor, taking me to his office, and summoning an ambulance for transfer to an Elgin hospital was appreciated.

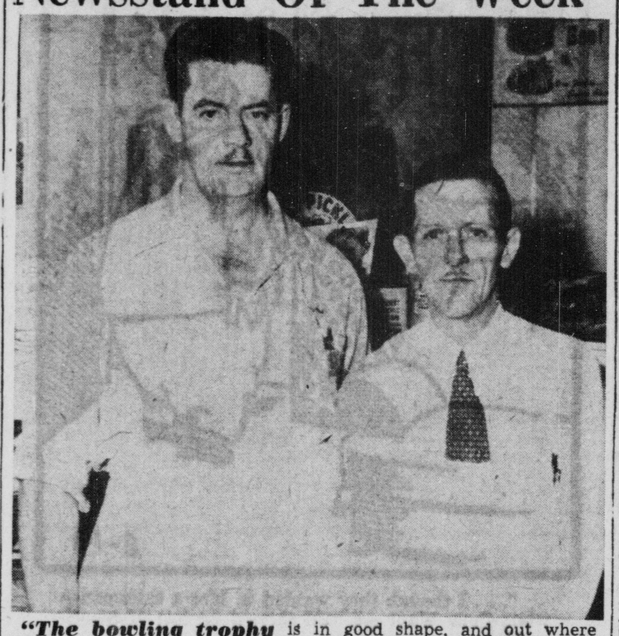
Newsstand Of The Week



"The bowling trophy is in good shape, and out where everyone can see it," said Len of Len & Sev's super market at 440 South York street in Bensenville in speaking of last year's Paddock bowling tournament won at Bensenville by Len & Sev's five.

Len originally opened a small store in Bensenville, then went into partnership with his brother-in-law, Sev, six years ago in the present IGA store. Both men originally lived in Elmwood Park, though Len has since moved to Bensenville.

Len's wife, Eleanor, assists in the store, with Sev's wife helping when needed. Len's daughter, Lynete, is 18, while his son, Buzz, will be a 14-year-old freshman at Bensenville high school next month. Sev has two boys, Dick, 17, and Severt, 15.

Butcher at the store is Ed Guenther, with Ethel Rettie, clerk, helping sell Bensenville Registers, one of the eight Paddock Publications now being sold on 60 newsstands with a volume of 7,830 papers weekly.

Testing, Testing, Over The 'Lectric Brain

A "piano roll" that "plays" a set of electronic circuits has been developed by an oil company to test automobile engines. The roll is a continuous loop of 35mm film with perforations. The perforations pass in front of an electric eye and activate various circuits. These in turn make the engine start and stop, set its speed and load and give it oil and water temperatures exactly as they originally happened. Oil companies study and test continually to improve conditions and products for American motorists
